WOMEN ATTACK GERMAN IRON WORKS IN PROTEST AGAINST LOSS OF HUSBANDS' WAGES

Women Also Raided Food Shops in Gelsenkirchen—Six to Eight Killed in Food Riots in Mannheim—State of Siege Declared—More Troops to Be Rushed Into Saxony

GELSENKIRCHEN, Ruhr Valley, Oct. 18. (By the Associated Press.)—A mob of women attacked and badly damaged the administration building of the Mannesmann iron works here today. The assault was in protest against the non-payment of wages due the women's husbands. The officials of the works pleaded lack of currency as the reason for their failure to pay the men's wages.

MANNHEIM, Germany, Oct. 18. (By the Associated Press.)—From six to eight persons are reported dead and many others wounded as the result of yesterday's food riots in Mannheim, during which frequent clashes occurred between the demonstrators and the police.

EX-U. S. DIPLOMAT AT STOKES TRIAL

Horace G. Knowles Says He Saw Mrs. Stokes on Stairs Near Wallace's Room

Presence of Knowles, Who Did Not Appear at First Trial Came as Surprise

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Horace G. Knowles, formerly in the United States diplomatic service in Rumania, Bulgaria, Bolivia and Peru, today testified at the trial of W. E. D. Stokes' suit for divorce against Helen Elwood Stokes, that he had seen Mrs. Stokes on the stairs leading to the apartment of Edgar T. Wallace.

Knowles, now a practicing lawyer, said he knew Wallace and that in 1914 he had visited a man with whom Wallace shared an apartment in 35th street. Asked whether he had seen Mrs. Stokes there, after the defendant had been pointed out to him in the courtroom, the witness answered:

"To the best of my knowledge and belief I did see her on the stairs leading to the apartment and in the flat of Wallace."

Appearance as a witness of Knowles, who did not appear at the first trial of the suit, came as a surprise. Knowles, who said he was an ex-O'Brien reporter and representative of the de facto government of San Domingo, declared he had come into court on Oct. 1 on his own volition to identify Mrs. Stokes to his own satisfaction. When he saw her, he said, he was sure she was the woman he had seen in 35th st.

On cross-examination by Mr. Untermyer, he said he was not sure it was he when he had visited the court. It was the opening day of the trial, he added.

MAYOR WILL ISSUE NAVY DAY PROCLAMATION

Mayor John J. Donovan announced today the preparation of a proclamation to be issued next week designating Oct. 27 as Navy day, and urging its general observance. The Lowell Navy club already has well formulated plans for the day, including a mass meeting at the Memorial Auditorium and whale boat races on the Merrimack river in the afternoon.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES
SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 18.—The next biennial meeting of the National Council of Congregational Churches, in 1925, will be held in Washington, D. C., by vote of today's session of the council. The invitation was presented by Rev. Dr. Jason Noble Pierce, pastor of the First Congregational church in that city. In view of the fact that President Coolidge was yesterday elected honorary moderator of the council, it was proposed today by Rev. Dr. D. P. Bradley of Cleveland, Ohio, that Mr. Coolidge be asked to preside. No action was taken on this.

FIGHTING THE CORN BORER
The state department of agriculture, through Commissioner A. W. Gilbert, calls attention to the fact that the corn borer and requires that all corn stubble be pulled up and burned or plowed in a depth of six inches before December 1. A heavily printed cardboard notice calling attention to the law, has been received at the office of the city clerk. Similar notices are posted in prominent places in all Middlesex county towns.

CONSIDER THE NO-SCHOOL BELL

Supt. Hugh J. Molloy Discusses the Rule Which Governs Its Sounding

Only When Weather is Severe May Signal Be Authorized, According to Rule

Consider the no-school signal, that much beloved 2-2-2, so much to be desired by the younger set, and which more often than not, sends anxious feet scurrying toward motion picture houses or to the little mud pond down at the corner where a raft cruising expedition makes play hours pass all too quickly.

Superintendent of Schools Hugh J. Molloy cocked his weather eye out of his office window this forenoon, watched the drizzling rain patter down on opposite roofs, said the farmers will welcome it and then directed a statement in the press concerning the sounding of this signal when days are not propitious.

"He was interrupted several times by anxious mothers, who wished to know whether school would 'keep' this afternoon, but in the end formulated the following:

"I feel that the attention of all persons who send children to school should be called to the wording of the rule which governs the sounding of the no school signal. It reads as follows:

"When the weather is extremely stormy, the superintendent of schools or persons designated by him may suspend the day or evening schools for one session."

"It is to be noted that the rule specifically states that the signal may be sounded only when weather is 'extremely stormy,' he continued. 'This does not mean that a session will be dispensed with whenever it is stormy. When we take out of the school time of every year holidays, visiting days and convention days, it does not require many storm signal days to reduce the actual school time to a bare 35 weeks of five days each."

RAT POISON MAY BE RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OF CATS

The Pied-Piper device of H. T. Pitts, Lowell's expert volunteer rat annihilator, is raising havoc with the city's cats, according to Agent Charles H. Richardson of the Humane society. During the past few days, the society's agents have been kept quite busy removing dead cats from office buildings and homes, and the proud owners have asked the Humane authorities to investigate the cause of death.

When Mr. Pitts started his rat-extermination crusade the public was given to understand that the process employed was harmless except when applied to rats. Mr. Richardson believes that cats are dying, not from partaking outright of the forbidden fruit, but from digesting rats that have been victimized by the Pitts preparation.

TWO NAMES ADDED TO LIST OF CANDIDATES

Two more names were added today to the list of candidates for office at the city primaries on Nov. 13, Eugene A. Fitzgerald, candidate for councillor from ward 2, and Cornelius J. Sullivan, candidate for school committee.

Mr. Fitzgerald is the present representative in the council from ward 2 and has capably cared for its needs and interests throughout the year. It has been said he will be unopposed for re-election.

Mr. Sullivan, a member of the school board in 1922, comes back this fall in an attempt for another term. He will seek one of the places now held by J. Eugene Mullin and Dr. Emma Y. Slaughter.

A stricter interpretation of the rule would occur, but he simply wishes to call attention to the rule, with the hope that much advance telephone annoyance may be avoided.

"Confidence imparts a wonderful inspiration to its possessor."

CITY SOLICITOR ORDERS POLICE TO PREVENT PROPOSED CLOSING OF DEAD HORSE LANE

Finds it is a Public Way—Runs From Rogers Street to Clark Road—Recent Purchaser of Land Abutting Lane Wants it Closed—Has Been Public Way Since Indian Days

Dead Horse lane is now the subject of dispute for the reason that an owner who has recently purchased some land there has undertaken to close it.

The neighbors in the vicinity have protested and the matter has been brought to the attention of City Solicitor Reynolds.

Most people would ask, "Where is this Dead Horse lane?"

It runs from Rogers street between Alumni field and Red Village, curving to the right to Clark road.

Engineer Kearney was appealed to in order to ascertain whether "Dead Horse lane" is a public way. The city solicitor looked up the matter also and arrived at the conclusion that Dead Horse lane has been a public way from time immemorial; indeed it might be said since the Indians made it their pathway through the woods to reach their fishing grounds on the banks of the Merrimack.

What was to be done to keep it open? Some of the neighbors suggested an injunction, getting the idea that almost anything can be done nowadays by the injunction method.

But City Solicitor Reynolds allowed that no injunction is necessary, inasmuch as the police are duly authorized to keep all the highways and byways open to the public and hence Supt. Atkinson of the police department was notified to send forthwith the necessary force of police to prevent the closing of Dead Horse lane, with full power to arrest anybody who persists in obstructing this public way.

For the present and for the future, therefore, Dead Horse lane will be an open pathway as it has been in the past, free to the public without any obstruction whatever.

Why was Dead Horse lane so named? Nobody can tell; but there is a tradition that in the days of the early settlers, before there were any hoards of health and before the mind of man conceived of such an institution as the Lowell Rendering Works, it was the custom to drag the carcasses of dead horses down a lane leading into the thick woods and a considerable distance away from the habitations of man. From this it is supposed the pathway obtained its name; but for generations past it has been used as a wagon road and a path for hunters and others, and never before was there any attempt made to close it against the public until the new owner of an abutting lot who was told he would have the free use of the lane in front forever. But he has discovered that Dead Horse lane was not included in his purchase.

PAPYRUS STAGGERS THE RAILBIRDS IN WORKOUT

NEW YORK, Oct. 18 (by the Associated Press).—Papyrus, the English Derby winner, staggered the railbirds at Belmont park, early this morning in a dazzling speed trial, the final workout for the international match race with Zev, on Saturday.

The English colt, with Donoghue up, went a mile in 1:38 3-5, and galloped the mile and a furlong at 1:51 2-5. He was never fully extended. The critical observers along the track were unanimous in declaring that it was by far the most impressive trial shown by either of the candidates so far.

The fractional times were: 12 2-5; 24 3-5; 37 4-5; 1:00; 1:12 1-5; 1:25; 1:38 3-5; 1:51 2-5.

LOOKS LIKE BUSY NIGHT FOR COUNCIL

Hearings on a site for the proposed new grammar school in the South End district, the acceptance of the legislative act making unpaid water bills a lien on real estate and upon the laying of underground wires, will feature tonight's meeting of the city council.

Although the grammar school hearing is scheduled primarily for the purpose of discussing a building site, it is expected the controversy will develop into an educational symposium before it ends, as the question of size is sure to be made a point at issue.

LEGION IN DEADLOCK

Delegates at Convention

Split on Bonus and Ku

Klux Klan Issues

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Interest of delegates to the fifth annual convention of the American Legion centered in the stand to be taken by the organization on important public questions, confronted with the necessity for speedy action on public opinion prepared by committees during the past two days the delegates today wrestled with recommendations and found the harmonizing of widely divergent views among the Legionnaires their most difficult task.

The K.K.K. issue, which developed into a deadlock yesterday with Michigan delegates holding out for complete repudiation of the organization, was one of the major questions confronting the delegates today. Likewise, the bonus problem, upon which some of the delegates held divergent views, loomed forth importantly in today's deliberations. A spirit of compromise developed in connection with both issues last night.

Elwell and King Murder Cases Not Solved

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Police Commissioner Enright did not mean that the Elwell and Dorothy King murder cases had been solved by the department when he stated in a radio talk Tuesday night that many cases whose solutions were known to the police could not be brought into court because of insufficient legal evidence. "I am merely speaking generally about cases of this type," he said. "I did not mean that these particular ones were cleared up."

ALL-NIGHT GRILLING
The arrests followed an all-night grilling of the prisoners by Fire Marshal Brophy, who declared he had obtained a confession from Anderson. Ill-feeling between Keim and his son-in-law was said to have existed for several years, according to Brophy, and Keim, it was understood, was to have appeared in a Hempstead, L. I. court to testify against Ford in an assault case the day of his death.

Anderson, according to Brophy, accused Ford and the unidentified man, also a stranger to him, of having driven to Keim's home early Monday morning after they had spent the Sunday evening with two girls, and with having fired the house. Keim, three women and two other men perished in the flames.

Ford and his father-in-law, formerly partners in a Manhattan theatrical enterprise, were said to have broken

Man of 74 Is "Rejuvenated" in 3 Weeks Without Gland Surgery

THOMAS J. GLASCOCK

Kansas Contractor Tells of Wonderful Results Obtained in Test of New Scientific Discovery

Thomas J. Glascock, well known Kansas contractor, declares he has virtually been made young again by the recently discovered korex compound, which is pronounced superior to "gland treatment" as an invigorator and revitalizer.

"I feel like I did at 35," says Mr. Glascock, "and seem to be getting stronger every day. During my three weeks' use of the new discovery, pains and weaknesses of many years' standing disappeared almost magically. Today I am as vigorous and supple as I was in the prime of life. Furthermore, when I began using the compound, my memory was virtually gone and I was almost blind. Now my mind is clear and active and I can read the finest print without difficulty."

In order to find out whether the results were lasting, Mr. Glascock waited six months before reporting on his test of the discovery. On this point he says: "Every passing day strengthens my conviction that my restoration is not only complete but permanent. I can't express the happiness this great discovery has brought to me. It has made me 'young' again."

Similar reports are being made almost daily. For instance, D. W. Wood of New Orleans, past 60 years of age, says: "The compound has brought me back to as good healthy physical condition as I enjoyed at 35. I am apparently as supple as at 25 and my eyesight is better than for years. I would not take $5000 for what the discovery has done for me."

The compound is a simple home treatment in tablet form, absolutely harmless, yet rated as the quickest and most powerful invigorator known. Acting directly on lower spinal nerve centers and certain glands and blood vessels, it having been present at Anderson's home early Sunday when the unidentified man, believed to have accompanied the alleged arson expedition, called on Anderson.

Anderson, according to Brophy, said he refused to take part in the arson plot beyond driving Ford's car. He said Ford accused him of being "yellow."

Officers who went to arrest him had to enter the house through a window, they said, and found Ford crouched in bed, with blankets pulled over his head. He screamed hysterically on seeing the police, they said. A newspaper clipping of an account of the fire was case, Brophy said, consisted in his found in Ford's pocket, Brophy said.

LOWELL HAS EXCELLENT WATER SUPPLY

High praise for Lowell's water supply system followed a thorough examination of the water works and well fields yesterday by engineers of the state division of sanitary engineering and a special legislative committee appointed for the purpose of investigating water supplies in Merrimack valley cities, particularly Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill.

There has been considerable agitation in Lawrence and Haverhill for new water supplies and the proposition was advanced to dam Salmon Brook in Putnam state, the cost to be shared proportionally by the three cities named. Lowell was not particularly interested in the proposition inasmuch as the local supply is adequate and of extremely high cost.

The special commission which visited the city yesterday, headed by X. H. Goodenough, director and chief engineer of the division of sanitary engineering, expressed great surprise at local conditions, saying they stand out in marked contrast to conditions in other cities where water supplies are dangerously low and water available below standard.

Among those who took part in the investigation were Senator Frank H. Putnam, Rep. Fred O. Lewis, Dennis J. Murphy, chairman of the public service board; Robert Gardner, superintendent, and James H. Reynolds, assistant superintendent of the Lowell water works, and 12 members of the state committee, including Engineer Goodenough.

This Little World

BY CASUAL STROLLER

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Many small bootleggers in New York are using baby carriage and some bags, which are a easy way to make their house-to-house calls.

A visitor to the city, not knowing this, started down Fifth avenue with a baby carriage and some bags, which he wanted to bring to the baggage room of 10th Grand Central station.

Women peered into the carriage and laughed knowingly. Those at the street crossings looked suspiciously and then snatched their lips.

The poor man was becoming more and more embarrassed, when finally he heard one woman whisper to another: "There goes a baby buggy bootlegger."

But the joke was on her. He wasn't.

If you like the music of the bells walk up Fifth avenue as far as 50th street, some Sunday morning and listen to the chiming of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

High rents in New York? Not for 20 tenants of a tenement house in East 140th street, The Bronx. Three years ago somebody threw a chair at the rent collector and he fled and never returned. Meanwhile the landlord, George Hagelwells, was out in Montana developing mining properties and worrying not at all about his New York tenement house. Last winter "The God of Vengeance" was dragged into court stream of money into his bank account.

The other day he came back and found his 20 tenants hadn't paid any rent for 40 months—and some even argued that his failure to be on the job and collect rents was equivalent to surrendering the property to the tenants! A court has ruled otherwise, but Hagelwells, a sadder and wiser man, finds that most of his tenants are broke.

The moral is: Even landlords have their troubles. How much is it worth to get a show "pinched"? A couple of seasons ago "The Demi Virgin" waxed fat in the box office after somebody had the producer arrested. Last winter "The God of Vengeance" was dragged into court as indecent and the show had to move out of Greenwich Village into a large uptown theatre to accommodate the crowds. Now the enterprising press agent of Broadway's nudist show is trying to get somebody to raise a hubbub about it. He has been sending complimentary tickets to ministers, educators, police officials—to anybody who would seem likely to be shocked.

And during the show he edges up to his quarry and says: "Well, what do you think of it? Pretty raw, eh? Think it ought to be censored?" "Well," comes more than one reply, "I don't know now. I think I'll have to come and see it again some time!"

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser!

Pittsburgh Man Tells How His Trouble Was Brought To End

"Well, sir, if any man has cause to be glad he tried Tanke, I am that man," declared William Tietz, a machinist, of 1669 Howley street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

"For two years, I was in misery from stomach trouble. My kidneys also bothered me. I had backache continually, couldn't sleep right, and didn't feel like working at all."

"Tanke drove these ailments right out, put me to eating, sleeping and feeling fine, and I now call myself a well man."

Tanke is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray. Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Adv.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy is easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs. Into a pint bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use thick molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PAINS IN BACK YIELD QUICKLY

Mr. Massey Suffered Severely But Found a Remedy That Restored His Health

The muscles of the back sustain the most severe strains of any in the body and they must be kept well nourished or they will rebel. When the blood is thin these muscles are starved and pain results. The following account well illustrates the symptoms and the remedy in such a case.

"I had a sharp, shooting pain in my back," says Mr. Massey, of No. 122 Lincoln avenue, Central Falls, R. I., "and nothing gave me any permanent relief. I lost weight and color, did not sleep much and had to quit work. At times the pains would catch me suddenly and nearly double me up. I hobbled around for a long time and finally got so bad that I could not help myself and had to be turned over to bed."

"Upon the advice of friends who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with benefit I started to take them and after I had used the first box I felt so much better I could hardly believe it. I could walk without fear of that terrible drawing up with pain and soon the pain was all gone from my back. I continued using the pills and put on weight. My appetite is good now and my food seems to agree with me. I am very much pleased with what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me and can honestly recommend them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Send for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."—Adv.

ALICE M. BELL,

A treasurer to succeed Allan D. Parker will be elected at the next meeting of the board of directors of the organization.

Quickly Heals Old Sores and Conquers Piles

Also Stops Itching of Eczema Almost Immediately

"Peterson's Ointment Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—I want to tell you how much I do love Peterson's Ointment for the good it has done me. My sore was on my left leg, was 4 1/2 inches by 2 1/2 inches wide—It all healed up beautifully now, and then too, it was so soothing on such a raw sore. I can't say enough praise for the good it has done me and will say a good word in your sales favor." Very truly yours, Miss Kate Kull, Sigat, Ill.

"I'd rather get a letter like that," says Peterson of Buffalo, "than have John D. Rockefeller give me a thousand dollars. It does me a lot of good to be able to be of use to my fellow man."

"For years I have been selling through druggists a large box of PETERSON'S OINTMENT for 25 cents. The healing power in this ointment is marvelous. Eczema goes in a few days. Old sores heal up like magic; piles that other remedies do not seem to even relieve are speedily conquered."

It stops itching in five minutes and for sores and burns it is simply wonderful.—Adv.

Painful Rheumatic Swellings Disappear

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless All Pain is Completely Banished All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called ALLENURE, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense ALLENURE with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. All druggists can supply you.—Adv.

DORMITORY MEN TO ELECT VILLAGE OFFICERS

The dormitory residents of the Y. M. C. A. held their first meeting of the fall and winter season last night. Dinner for over 60 men was served at 6:15 o'clock and was followed by a business meeting.

In order that the newer and older residents might become better acquainted, the dinner, one by one, arose at the end of the dinner making known their name, their room number, their occupation and place of employment.

Burpee Harchard, dormitory secretary, presided at the opening of the meeting but surrendered the chair to Percy Douglas as temporary chairman, or "acting mayor of the Village Triangle." Nomination for village officers for the ensuing year found Mr. Douglas sole nominee for village clerk. Edward Brown and Archibald D. Grant were nominated for mayor. One councilman from each ward will be chosen. The nominees:

First ward: Frank Sawyer, Wayne Peterson; second ward, R. M. Frank, P. A. Lawlor; third ward, Charles Gammache, L. F. Ripley; fourth ward, Charles Mason, Ronald Zinn, Herbert Dumesnil. Ballots will be cast on Oct. 25 and 27. The dinners will be a weekly feature during the fall and winter months.

LOWELL REPRESENTED AT BOSTON MEETING

A series of conventions which have been held during the past three months throughout the United States between representatives of the Post-office department at Washington, and postal employees and the general public in the 48 states of the Union, culminated yesterday in a meeting in Faneuil hall in Boston, which was attended by a large Lowell delegation.

The hall was packed and the meeting developed into an extraordinary airing of the troubles that best postal officials on one hand, the employees on the other, and the general public. That the service is to be improved, and this postal district, it was announced, will be given 254 additional clerks, carriers and laborers.

Among those who attended from this city were the following: Postmaster Xavier A. Delisle, superintendent of Mails Joseph P. Mehan, Foreman George L. Hunt, Carriers John J. Ginnin and Patrick J. Owens, and Clerks Bernard D. Ward and Frank H. McHugh. About 25 carriers and 15 clerks went to Boston for the afternoon sessions.

The regular morning schedules were carried out on every route but in accordance with instructions from the postal department at Washington, carriers on certain routes in residential sections were released at noon in order that they might attend the afternoon sessions. In doing this, it was necessary to eliminate deliveries in certain residential sections during the afternoon, but the business districts received the usual afternoon service.

FEELS BETTER THAN EVER, HE SAYS

Suffering From Stomach, Liver and Kidneys Departs on Taking Dreco

James A. Burbank, 172 Lawrence ave., Lowell, Mass., says:

"My, how I felt! Sickness had me in its grip and wore me down until I was but a shadow of my former self. I grew weak and thin. Food that I ate laid in my stomach and caused indigestion pains kept me in constant agony. I became nervous. So nervous that I couldn't sleep. I would go to bed tired and get up more tired.

"Constipation had my system in its grip. I felt clogged and stuffy. Often I would have to fight for breath. My kidneys caused terrible pains across the small of my back and I would have to get up several times every night.

"The medicines that I tried failed to do me a bit of good. Then Dreco came to my rescue. This wonderful remedy quickly put me on my feet in good shape. I now feel fine. I am stronger and have more energy. I can eat everything without suffering afterwards. And most of all I look a hundred percent better. All my thanks to Dreco. It is the best of them all. And I hope that every man and woman will benefit by my experience and let it help them."

WILL WONDERS NEVER CEASE?

YOUR PRICE TAG

Do you know that wherever you move you are carrying with you a fortune estimated at $22,585.44? That is the estimate of the worth of the human body made by the National Industrial Conference Board at New York. Here is the way they figure it:

Eye .....	$2,357.76
Arm .....	5,747.04
Thumb .....	1,105.20
Hand .....	4,494.48
Foot .....	3,776.00
Leg .....	5,104.96

Every convenience and comfort will be accorded them during the coming season, as in the past.

The Kasino enters the roller skating world after a most successful season of dancing. The large and neatly polished floor is well adapted to skating as those who have used it in the past well know. From now until further notice, regular programs will be conducted every afternoon and evening, with musical accompaniment.

Besides the sport to be derived from roller skating, it is a recognized fact that leading physicians throughout the country strongly endorse roller skating as one of the best forms of exercise. It is invigorating and healthful, requiring the employment of muscles that otherwise suffer from lack of exercise. The practice is especially recommended to women.

Physician Explains Who Should Take Nuxated Iron

Practical Advice on How To Help Build Up Great Strength, Energy and Endurance

"Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life," says Dr. Emile Sauter, well known New England physician. "It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. I have strongly emphasized the great necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their weak, anemic, run-down patients. Thousands of persons go on year after year suffering from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your food merely passes through the body something like corn through an old mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind."

"For want of iron you may be an old man at thirty, dull of intellect, poor in memory, nervous, irritable and all run down, while at 50 or 60 with plenty

Some Families Are Never Ill

FORTUNATE are the children whose parents fully realize the seriousness of constipation. Hospital records prove that 75 per cent of all disease originates in bowel obstruction, or constipation. Young children cry because of it; school children are hampered in their studies; grown people are made 25 per cent less efficient; elderly people's blood pressure increases 25 per cent. Realizing this Mrs. Carrie Moss of 1714 Church st., Lynchburg Va., Mr. Louis C. Gohl of 1569 Winton ave., Lakewood, Ohio, and innumerable others, give a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at the first sign of constipation, and have no sickness among their children.

Largest Selling Laxative

Every up-to-date family medicine chest should contain a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and palatable aromatics, a prescription written 30 years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who practiced medicine 47 years. You can buy a bottle in any store where medicines are sold, and the cost is less than a cent a dose. We guarantee that if you will give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to a child or for a few nights to an adult it will relieve any case of constipation no matter how chronic, or your money will be refunded.

10 Million Bottles a Year

Use it once and you will never again take coal-tar drugs in candy form, calomel or salts. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a vegetable laxative free from opiates and narcotics. It can be safely given to infants, yet it effectively moves the bowels of adults. It acts gently; does not cramp or gripe. Keep it in the house and use it for any indication of bowel obstruction such as constipation, biliousness, torpid liver, dyspepsia, pimples and skin eruptions. Give it early and it will break up a fever or a cold overnight. A spoonful proves it.

ance that it was necessary to feed the people in two shifts. After the meal was concluded an entertainment was held in the vestry and auditorium which was charmingly decorated with autumn leaves to lend the proper harvest-time spirit to the affair. The committee in charge of the supper consisted of Mrs. Henry Langworthy, Mrs. Joseph P. Varnum, Mrs. Cabell, Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Peasley and Mr. Clements.

Harold Bentley took tickets and the tables were served by the Misses Gladys Usher, Violet Russell, Jessie Peasley, Violet Rinkaid, Lillian George and Pauline Varnum, and Charles Demmons. Thomas Gordon Foster Richards and Charles Stone, Mrs. Kitty Ruffles and Miss Anna Wiggins had charge of the candy table.

Mrs. Robert Mills had charge of the entertainment program and the following delightful selections were enjoyed: Piano solo, Miss Muriel Shoo-han; reading, Miss Lillian George; song, Miss Emma Canney; musical selections, Miss Vivian Demmons, pianist, and Charles Demmons, drums.

The Collinsville Fire Co., will hold a concert and dance next Friday evening at Harmony hall in Collinsville.

MISS. MARIA JERITZA

That Miss Maria Jeritza will play to practically a capacity house in the Memorial Auditorium next Wednesday evening is indicated by the advance sale of tickets at Chaffoux's.

The rare physical loveliness of this youngest of prima donnas, whose triumphant success at the Metropolitan has furnished one of the most emphatic operative sensations of many years, would seem to forebode a capacity audience here, should she appear. Not only is she one of the greatest sopranos of all time, but in addition she has the rare charm of physical loveliness that not every musical star possesses.

THIS LITTLE BABY GIRL

Was Benefited by the Good Her Mother Got from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my little girl was born, and the effect it had was wonderful. This will be the first child I have nursed, as I had to bring my two boys up on the bottle. I was very nervous and worried, tired all the time, and after I read about the Vegetable Compound I tried it and kept on with it. I still continue its use and recommend it to my friends. You may publish these facts as a testimonial for your medicine."—Mrs. Wm. Klinge, 169 Plymouth St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after the birth of the child, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother at this time. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents

AT THE B. F. KEITH THEATRE
Attendance at the "Fall Fashion Revue," at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week, threatens to break all records. The prettiness and the novelty of this splendid act—or series of acts—is apparent from the time the first curtain ascends on it. It is in three scenes, and each one of them brings fashion shows which are entrancing. A large company, the greater part of which is from this city, most ably assists in the production, while the Lowell merchants who are represented give of the very best of their wares. The remainder of the bill is varied. McWatters & Dyson present a snappy vaudeville turn, with music and dancing, and Tomer & Day have a novelty sketch. The Four Faye Girls are musicians, playing the concertina and the piano. Their work is very highly praised. Billy Beard is an unusual huckster comedy man, and Horas & White cut cures the week's big picture feature is "Youthful Cheaters."

THE STRAND

Priscilla Dean continues to make her appearance in strong emotional roles that bring out the best qualities of her dramatic ability. In "The Big Universal-Jewel production," which opens a three days' engagement today at The Strand, she again reflects her exceptional talent. The story is an intensely dramatic one, with thrills aplenty. It concerns a white woman practically alone in a section of China and engaged in a dangerous occupation—selling the opium that is the curse of the Mongolian race.

Daisy Ruth Miller is the leading woman in the latest Earle Williams feature, "Fortune's Mark," which opened today at The Strand. This picture story has South America as its locale, and the action carries one through a series of real thrills. Williams was never seen in better advantage than in this latest production. It's a hummer.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

This week at the Opera House a dramatization of "The Fighting Parson" entitled "Wild Oats Lane," is the offering of the Al. LaFinger stock players. Considered the greatest moral drama ever staged, "Wild Oats Lane" has come to Lowell endorsed by clergy and press all over the country. The book has been read by millions and the play seen by thousands all with the same impression. "Wild Oats Lane" is one of the plays of the season which give the players of the Opera House an opportunity to show what they can do.

MERRIMACK SQUARE

Zane Grey's novel, "The Last Man," as pictured by Paramount, opened a three days' engagement at the Merrimack Square theatre this afternoon. This is the story of a famous feud between cattlemen and sheepmen in Arizona, which was fought out literally to the last man. It is filled with action and has dramatic situations, which are certain to arouse the enthusiasm of moving-picture fans to a high pitch. Richard Dix, Lois Wilson, Noah Beery, Robert Edison and Frank Campbell are leading players in the cast. It is a picture every lover of virtue photoplays will heartily enjoy.

The second feature for the last half of the week is "Cordelia," the magnificent starring Clara Kimball Young in one of the most entertaining photoplays of the present season. The usual excellent surrounding program is also being shown.

PRESIDENT

This is Marshal Tiao-Kim, former military governor of the province of Chih-Li, who has just been elected president of the republic of China. This exclusive photo of him is his latest and best.

CAUSE OF GOITRE

The cause of goitre has been recently subjected to much discussion on the part of physicians and laymen alike. Much light has been thrown on the so-called sources of focal infection. Mysteries which have surrounded goitre, chronic rheumatism and diseases of the stomach and kidneys, have been under strict observation. Intestinal stagnation may cause true infection by micro-organisms penetrating the tissues. However, many cases of chemical poisoning, it is now believed, are due to focal infection, arising in other regions.

Dr. De Courcy of Cincinnati, head of the goitre clinic at Seton hospital, has advanced the statement that goitre is caused by fatigue or excessive exercise. After the treatment of three thousand patients, he is positive that much careful thought must be given the subject of physical exercises in schools and other places, by girls and women.

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See this point, Mr. Advertiser.

Eight women develop goitre to every two men. "Excessive athletic and gymnastic work, especially in high schools, when girls are going through the adolescent period, in my opinion is being overdone at present," the doctor says. "Several years ago I advanced the theory that fatigue plays an important part in the production of goitre, and I felt that the growth develops when the normal limit of a patient's endurance is exceeded, whether suddenly or gradually. Women develop goitre more rapidly, because their zone of endurance is more narrowed than that of men."

If the growth of goitre in girls and women can be prevented by careful dieting and, as Dr. Courcy says, by avoiding nervous tension and strenuous exercise, one of the greatest disasters may be a thing of the past in a comparatively few years.

SENIORS READ PAPERS AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Selected papers were read by members of the senior class at the State Normal school yesterday afternoon in the regular lecture period of the school. The students reading paper were the Misses Catherine Ready, Bertha Sandler, Gertrude Martin, Mary Nugent, Blanche Kenney, Allen A. Kelley and Czarina Bartlett. Miss Bartlett's remarks will be read before the New England Teachers' Historical association. The subject dealt with was "What Training Means from the Viewpoint of the Pupil."

Miss Bartlett in her paper took particular care to outline the necessary qualifications of a teacher as a thorough knowledge of the subject being taught, an interesting method of presenting it to her class, the maintenance of discipline by example and encouragement rather than by driving her pupils like the old slave masters, a willingness to serve others rather than herself, and an absence of any unfairness in her judgments on culprits guilty of disorder. Religion also should be kept out of the classroom, as well as any semblance of class or racial prejudice. Misses Ready, Sandler, Martin, Nugent, Kenney and Kelley read papers along the same general lines emphasizing the important points before stated and making it clear that teachers in the grammar schools are more apt to be efficient than those of the high schools, due to the special training in methods of teaching they have received in Normal schools, as well as their realization of the fact that a teacher must hold out an ideal for the children to follow in so far as possible. Attractiveness of dress and person were things to be cultivated. A teacher who is careless about her own appearance sets a poor example to her pupil.

LOWELL TEXTILE SCHOOL

Local Institution Honored by New York State Board of Education

The Lowell Textile school, recognized as one of the foremost technical institutions in the country, has been honored by the New York state board of education by being placed upon its small list of approved schools of engineering, thus putting the school in a class with the biggest and best schools of this type in the United States. The honor is one of the highest a technical institution can receive and the school trustees received word of the decision of the New York board with great elation. Following is the letter recently received by President Charles H. Eames, and read by him to the board of trustees: The University of the State of New York, The State Department of Education, Albany, Oct. 4, 1923. President Charles H. Eames, Lowell Textile School, Lowell, Mass. My dear Sir: I have pleasure in advising you that the board of regents at a meeting held Sept. 20 formally registered Lowell Textile school under Section 404 of its rules in its courses leading to the degree of bachelor of textile engineering and bachelor of textile chemistry. Under the registration graduates of your institution holding the degrees of B.T.E. and B.T.C. will be entitled to the college graduate limited certificate to teach in this state, such certificate being restricted to the teaching of modern languages, mathematics and sciences. At the above mentioned meeting the regents also registered the Lowell Textile school under Section 446 of the regents' rules as an approved school of engineering, the degrees registered under this section being B.T.E. and B.T.C.

Very truly yours, AUGUSTUS S. DOWNING, At a recent meeting of the board of trustees, the first of the present school year, Arthur G. Pollard was elected chairman; Royal P. White, agent of the Sterling mills, vice-chairman, and President Charles H. Eames, clerk.

The Biggest Surprise of Your Life

* * *

YOU will be surprised and delighted with the wonderful lustre your sheets, pillow cases, table-cloths and napkins have after being starched with Linit, the remarkable new starch discovery.

Linit penetrates the fabric, prolongs its life, helps prevent wear, and gives a soft, cool, pliable finish that makes even the most ordinary cotton goods look and feel like expensive linen.

New Starch Discovery

THIS remarkable starch is made by an improved process that keeps it fluid after it cools. You are never troubled with clotting, smearing or "blistering." Linit penetrates every thread of the fabric, helps prevent wear, and strengthens the material. You will find it a hundred per cent easier to iron with Linit.

And your Linit-starched garments remain clean and fresh much longer.

Important to you

AFTER Linit is thoroughly dissolved according to directions, and ready for use, you will notice it is THIN and FREE-RUNNING LIKE WATER—with a "milky" appearance. Be sure to use Linit according to directions, and unlike other starches, you will not find Linit stiff or jelly-like. This is one reason why Linit goes much further than the old-fashioned kind of starches.

Linit costs 10c at all grocers

Get a package and begin the modern way of starching your fabrics. Perfection in starching guaranteed or your money refunded.

Linit is made by the Corn Products Refining Company—makers of the famous Argo Starch—Karo Syrup and Mazola Salad and Cooking Oil.

EVERSHARP is matched by WAHL PEN and nothing else!

Eversharp is a basically correct mechanical pencil. Its construction is simple. There is no complex mechanism to get out of order. Therefore, it works perfectly. Carry two—one filled with the new colored lead.

No other pencil can give you Eversharp service—for Eversharp features can't be copied. The exclusive rifled tip prevents the lead from wobbling. The automatic index tells the length of lead in the barrel. Pull off the cap, and you find an eraser; unscrew the cap, and there is a magazine well filled with leads—an ingenious arrangement.

The worthy companion of Eversharp is the all-metal Wahl Pen. It is a great fountain pen improvement. It can neither crack nor break. It will not wear out in a lifetime. And it holds considerably more ink.

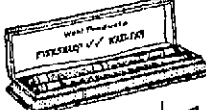

Eversharp and Wahl Pen are matched in exquisite designs, and are made in gold and silver. Wahl Pen, $4 to $10; Eversharp, $1 to $10—higher, of course, for solid gold. Buy both, and look for the name on each. See also the Wahl rubber pens. $2.50 up.

Made in the U. S. A. by THE WAHL CO., Chicago

EVERSHARP matched by WAHL PEN

IMPORTANT. A pencil is no better than its lead. Don't use poor lead in your Eversharp. Use Eversharp leads, which are recognized as the finest made. Over 200,000,000 sold every year. They fit the pencil, get them. Seven grades, very soft to very hard. Ask for the new small-diameter colored leads, too, in the red top box.

TO VISIT TOMB OF LINCOLN

Lloyd George, Recovered From Slight Cold, Goes to Springfield, Ill.

Declares German Reparations Most Serious Factor in Europe's Disturbances

CHICAGO, Oct. 18 (By the Associated Press).—His chief message to American voices and recovered from the slight cold and fatigue which kept him idle yesterday, David Lloyd George, war premier of Great Britain, will resume his itinerary today, going to Springfield, Ill., for a visit to the tomb of Abraham Lincoln, and an address there.

After his speech last night to an audience of 10,000 in the International amphitheatre at the stockyards, the British statesman immediately returned to his hotel suite and retired. The all-day rest which caused an abandonment of the program which had been arranged for him, left apparent but little indication of illness when the little Welshman delivered his address with characteristic force and energy.

Five Arrested

Three men and two women, charged with creating a disturbance by passing out handbills relating to the freedom of Ireland, were arrested prior to the meeting. The handbills contained questions regarding Ireland which Lloyd George was urged to answer, and at the bottom were printed the names of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic and the United Irish society of Chicago. Many of those seeking to hear the speech knocked the handbills out of the hands of those passing them out, and when the latter refused to move on, in compliance with police orders they were arrested.

Reparations Serious Factor

German reparations are the most serious factor in Europe's disturbances and America might aid as peace-maker by participating in an expert inquiry into Germany's ability to pay, as proposed by Charles E. Hughes, secretary of state, Mr. Lloyd George asserted.

France's method of seeking to collect by invasion and occupation means "revolution instead of reparations" and is "driving 60,000,000 people into despair," he said.

Europe is a "ragged man standing in front of the plateglass windows of a well stocked store," who cannot buy food and clothes because he cannot pay.

The picture of the old world drawn by the little Welshman. He said America, as the "world's greatest business community," is affected by the European lack of buying power, and that until Europe's prosperity is restored, she cannot enter the world markets as a paying customer.

RUBE YARRISON

JOHNNY JONES

COAST STARS COME UP

BROOKLYN, Oct. 16.—This year the cream of the Coast league phenoms comes to the Brooklyn club of the National league. Rube Yarrison, right-handed pitcher, and Johnny Jones, shortstop, have been bought from Portland by the local interests for $50,000. Yarrison, a Connie Mack discard, has been a star on the coast this year. He is an underhand speed merchant of the type of Carl Mays. Jones is a .300 hitter and is counted on to fill the gap in the Brooklyn infield that has existed since Ivan Olson, the veteran, started to go back.

which is improving rapidly," with German reparations as the chief cause of stagnation and chaos abroad.

"The United States is absolutely impartial," he declared in seconding Secretary Hughes' plan. "She has no interest in reparations. She has certainly no more interest in Germany than anybody else. She is very well disposed toward France and, therefore, with a friendly country, absolutely impartial and with a great fund of business knowledge at its disposal, represented in a body of that kind, it seems to me we would find a way to ascertain how much Germany can pay, and once we have done that, then we could march together to compel her to pay."

From Springfield, Mr. Lloyd George will go to St. Louis, thence to Louisville, Ky., where the week-end will be spent.

GOLF KNOWS NO AGE LIMIT

Not the least of the charms of golf is the standing invitation to players of all ages.

In the recent play for the women's national championship mere slips of girls battled on even terms with gray-haired elders.

One formidable player, an annual contender for the title, Mrs. Cuth Fox, in the 60s, and a grandmother of 10, was unable to play on account of a broken toe.

Youngest in the field was little Maureen Orcutt, a 16-year-old star of the east.

Oldest, with Mrs. Fox out, was Mrs. Ronald Barlow of Philadelphia, a heroine of a score of major tournaments.

GLOOM REARERS AT OLD PENNSY

The biggest football upset of the early season was the defeat of the supposedly rejuvenated Pennsylvania eleven by Maryland.

This year Pennsy started out on a new football footing, with a new coach in charge and a new system in vogue. Coach Young replaced Coach Holsman and expectations ran high. In Tex Hamer, captain, Pennsy was said to have one of the finest inspirational leaders in the east.

Maryland was not looked on as a particularly formidable foe. The south-erners, however, proved to be extremely tough and gave the new Pennsy regime its first black eye, scoring a 3-0 victory.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND NEVER SUSPECT IT

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

A BROTHER-TO-BROTHER PASS

DICK THROWS IT—

DICK LAWSON

By N.E.A. Service
PALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 18.—The "two-way-Lawson-to-Lawson" forward pass, famous since the brothers played together on the Long Beach High School team, seven years ago, has come to Stanford. And by virtue of that, coast fans are seeing exhibitions of football passing rivaled only by "Buck" Muller at University of California.

Dick Lawson, 24, and Jim Lawson, 21, are the boys who work in gridiron harness together. They are the pair who shout, "Ready Jim?" "Shoot 'er, Dick!" "Here she comes!" Dick, who is first quarterback and halfback, usually is on the sending end. With Jim at left end and Dick dropping back to take the ball from center, the opposing team is usually on the alert for one of Dick's famous over-center passes into Jim's large hands. When a long pass is wanted, Jim drops back from end in quarterback trick calls signals from the end of the line and then speeds down the field. Jim falls back from the rushing defensive ends and tackles, and away soars the oval directly into the hands of the smaller brother.

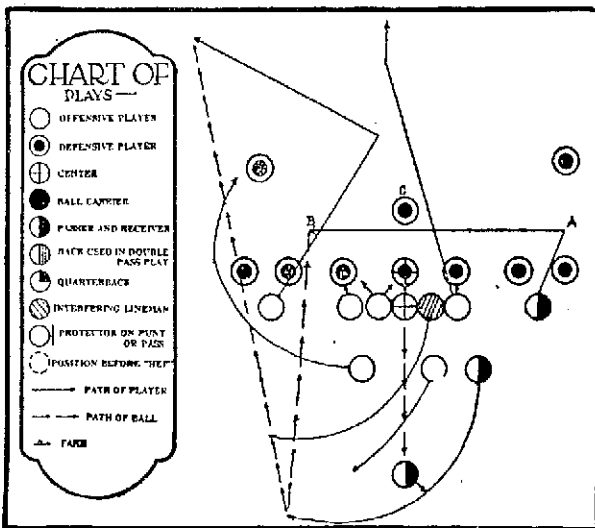

Dick and Jim were powerful factors on the championship Long Beach teams in 1916 and 1917. Time after time their passes decided important games.

Dick, being the older brother, stayed out of school for three years to help Jim. Jim came to Stanford first, but this year both are here. They will play together on the cardinal team this year and next.

THE BLUE NOSE

GLOUCESTER, Oct. 18.—The Columbia will probably uphold the glory and traditions of the American fishing fleet in the North Atlantic in the annual race for the international fishermen's trophy beginning on Oct. 27 at Halifax, N. S.

Unless the Henry Ford, unsuccessful challenger of last year, returns from the Baltic today, the Columbia will go to Halifax and attempt to wrest the trophy from the present titleholder, the Canadian Blue Nose.

At a meeting last night, the American race committee voted to certify the Columbia as America's official challenger with the stipulation that if the Ford returned from her fishing trip in time the two would contest an elimination race this week and the winner would become the challenger. As the Ford would require several days to prepare for even an elimination encounter, it is believed that the Columbia's right to meet the Blue Nose will not be contested.

GloUCESTER fishermen generally believed that the Columbia is best fitted to represent America in the international race as a result of her trials off this port recently. Built this year as a probable contender for international racing honors the Columbia resembles in her lines the Mayflower, which was twice debarred from competition in the cup series because of her yacht-like design and great sail area.

At last night's meeting the committee sent a formal challenge to the Halifax trustees of the cup and arrangements have been made to have the official party leave this port next Wednesday on the U.S.S. Bushnell for Halifax, where that vessel will be stationed during the races. The Bushnell is now at New London, Conn., where she is making preparations for the trip.

President Coolidge is expected to name an official representative to be present at the contest and Gov. Cox will name an official representative of the Commonwealth.

BEAN SOUP SHOULD BE CALLED BEAN SOUP!

Dining rooms on American liners should have their menu cards printed in English, says Congressman Fred Britten of Illinois. He recently criticized the Ritz Room of the Leviathan, where the cards are printed in French. Here he is in a Washington hotel asking Aug. F. ## CONGRESSMAN BEEDY SAYS RUSSIA IS MAKING SLOW PROGRESS UNDER SOVIET RULE

Filth, Poverty, Resigned Submission Evident at Every Hand He Tells Commerce Chamber—Against Recognition by United States to "Godless Government"

Congressman Carroll L. Beedy of Portland, Me., addressed 160 members and guests of Lowell chamber of commerce at Liberty hall at the close of the fall membership luncheon yesterday noon. Mr. Beedy recently returned from a four and one-half month's trip to Europe and confined his remarks almost wholly to his experiences in Soviet Russia.

Mr. Beedy was presented to the meeting by Congressman John Jacob Rogers of Lowell who referred to his colleague in the house of representatives as one "whom I admire and respect," adding that he wished he could truthfully say the same of all of his colleagues in the house.

"There are many men who can't talk and insist upon talking," said Congressman Rogers, "and many of those who can talk do not talk." He added that in Mr. Beedy the chamber had secured a speaker who both could and would talk and that it was a pleasure to him to introduce "my friend and colleague, Carroll L. Beedy, representative of Maine."

In acknowledging the introduction and opening his remarks, Mr. Beedy said: "We need in congress today thinking men. We have all too few of them. You have sent us one whom we respect and honor, if you can keep such a type of men in public life it augurs well for the nation."

Spent Month in Russia

Russia, the speaker said, is at present attracting great attention from sociologists, economists and students of politics because of its great potential capacity for aiding in the restoration of world equilibrium. Mr. Beedy spent a month in Russia, entering from Finland visiting Moscow and Petrograd, travelling along the Volga, stopping at Kiev, then going to the Black Sea, Turkey, Greece, Italy and Switzerland before returning home.

He painted a pitiful picture of life as it is in Russia today—the immorality, the unemployment, the despair, the hunger, and the repulsiveness of it all. Every face he said showed submission to the present and resignation as to the future. Filth, poverty, decay and disintegration were on every hand, he said. Cleanliness is a lost ideal and soap, except in the larger cities, is a rare commodity.

Filth, Poverty and Depression

In Moscow, he and Mrs. Beedy stayed at the "Soviet Guest House," paying a billion and fifth rubles a day for accommodations, or about $8 American money at the then current exchange rate. Poverty and depression were evident on all sides. Tea, black bread and fish, raw or dried, seemed the diet of all Russia.

Can't Recommend Approval

In observing the workings of the soviet government the speaker said he saw much that he couldn't approve and saw some things which he thought most creditable. The magnitude of the problem of the soviet government almost baffles comprehension. The fact that communism is a godless government, that Christ and capital in effigy were only two weeks before his arrival in Petrograd, dragged through streets of the city, soured him irrevocably against the party. He stated he couldn't conscientiously, after all that he saw, recommend a stamp of approval for the soviet government or recommend their admission to the family of nations.

The speaker said he doesn't believe in the soviet rule, but does not condemn it utterly. If it is untrue, it will perish of its own inherent disease, he said, while if there is truth in it, it will live. Encouragement he cannot give, but believes we should carefully watch the progress. Sympathy, the speaker said, is hard to extend to government that is spending great sums for propaganda abroad while millions of its people are starving at home.

Visits Textile Plant

He told of the government operation of the textile mills. The superintendent of a group he visited, then employing 1600 hands, was getting $35 a month and had been a communist for twenty-four years.

Although persons who have religious are not admitted to the communist party, there is "such a dearth of brains" in the party, he said, that the department heads had to be secured without the communist rank. They are paid the equivalent of $33 a month. Skilled labor gets the equivalent of $19 a month and unskilled labor

SELL COAL TO PROFITEERS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(By the Associated Press) Some of the coal operators who recently conferred with Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania at Harrisburg declined his demand to stop selling coal to profiteering dealers. It was learned today in authoritative quarters. The governor it was said had asked operators to discontinue selling to these dealers because they charged more than the executive stated was necessary to meet increased wages. The operators, it is understood, told the governor that the coal companies could not act in concert in selling coal as this would violate the law and also lay themselves open to charges of monopoly. They told the governor they had to mine and sell coal within the law.

When the governor asked the operators if it would not be possible to establish their own retail selling establishment it is understood that they replied it would take years to bring about such an arrangement and that it would not clear the present situation. The operators, it was said, told the governor that if he would use his efforts in getting the anthracite miners to increase production, the situation would become normal shortly.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS

Preservation and Protection Discussed at Convention of Council of Catholic Men

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 17.—The preservation of the parochial schools as the foundation of Catholicism in America and their protection from those who would abolish them, has been the theme of most of the addresses delivered at the convention of the National Council of Catholic Men in session here.

Timothy S. Hogan, former attorney general of Ohio, speaking before the convention today, charged that there are constantly recurring attempts both at Washington and in almost every state of the union to enact legislation hostile to the Catholics and laws that prevent the members of that faith from enjoying full rights as citizens. "I am unwilling to believe that the American people will stand for any abolition of private or parochial schools," he said. "We need only bring argument, based on sound reasons before legislative assemblies to protect our schools. We should aim to have in every legislature some competent and respected men; Catholics should participate in the direction of public affairs. I do not mean for the purpose of control, but for the purpose of preventing the passage of iniquitous measures."

Thinks Lenine Honest

"I think Lenine is an honest man actuated by idealistic dreams," said the speaker, adding that he "saw others of the type that appeared to be in it for themselves." The speaker told of the great steps of the government in educating the younger generations to the theory of communism and said that the next generation in Russia is the generation to be reckoned with. He predicted that if communism, with its 800,000 members now controlling a nation of a hundred and fifty million souls, can live through the next ten years it will be in high an impregnable position in Russia.

We Should Take More Interest

The speaker urged in closing that the American people take a leaf from the red book of Russia and pay more attention to our government here at home and to the calibre of men we place in office.

One day a year at the polls should not be the full extent of our interest, he said, though with many it is.

He stressed the need of paying more attention to our civic responsibilities that we will not by our indifference to our Russian troubles, to believe America offers a great chance for an expansion of the distress, the poverty, the filth, the misgovernment and resigned submission that he witnessed abroad.

TO THE RESCUE

TALK ON TRAFFIC AT NOON LUNCHEON

The regular noon luncheon of the fast-growing Lion's club was held yesterday in Toles Inn, with a good attendance. President C. E. Bartlett was in charge. Wesley Wilder was appointed a committee of one to provide the speaker for the next meeting.

Traffic Officer John T. Whalen, who for seven years has controlled the steadily increasing number of cars at the corner of Central and Market streets, was the speaker of the day. He called attention to the increase in the number of autos from 1200 to approximately 10,000 in Lowell since 1916 when he first took up his duties in the traffic branch of the local police department. This traffic, he said, could not be controlled smoothly without the cooperation of all pedestrians and drivers and he pleaded for clearness of signals at the various busy corners of the city. Most of the accidents nowadays, he stated, come in the residential section where good streets invite the driver to open up and drive at such a high rate of speed that control of the car is lost, if a sudden emergency comes up.

Concluding the talk, he declared as his belief that the best methods of preventing trouble on the streets was by training the children in the schools in the proper way of crossing busy places, and through clubs like the Lions, where the members could hear men qualified to talk on the subject, and then spread the ideas advanced to them. He cited the efficacy of these methods by concrete examples in places where the system has been tried out.

At the conclusion of the talk a rising vote of thanks was given Officer Whalen and the club sang its parting song.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 9

And sure enough, just as Jack reached the great castle kitchen, Flip jumped out from behind a stove and greeted his master. "Well, where did you come from?" said Jack. "Oh, he's been here ever since you have," replied Jingo. "The night watchman let him in because he's a good watch dog."

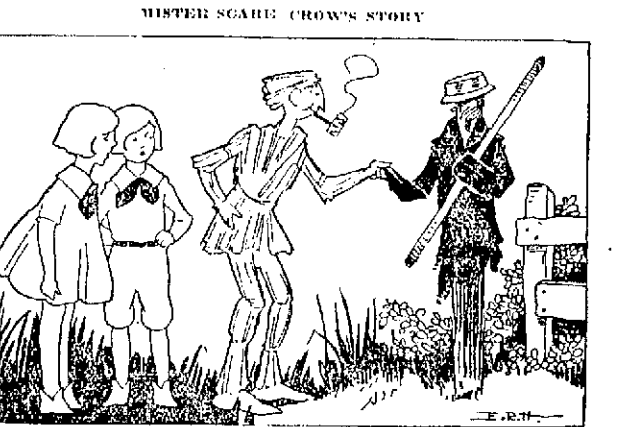

During all this commotion the castle cook was in the kitchen pantry. The noise attracted him and he suddenly appeared in the pantry doorway. Then he let out a loud roar and went tearing across the kitchen floor and disappeared out of a doorway that led to a great courtyard.

"Well, what's the matter with him?" laughed Jack. "Oh, he's not used to seeing Clatter legs, the armored knight, walking around. It must have scared him." Jack then ran to the window and saw the cook hiding behind a large bush at the rear of the castle. (Continued.)

MISTER DODGER SHOOK HIS LIMP STRAW HAND HEARTILY

"Why, you've lost your gun, Mister Scare Crow," cried Nick, as he was taking a walk with Nancy and Mister Dodger through the corn-field.

"Oh, no, I haven't," nodded Mister Scare Crow, his wide straw mouth curved in a merry smile. "I didn't exactly lose it. I threw it away." And he chuckled so that he shook all over. It was the end of the season and Mister Scare Crow was getting quite old. "And your tin pan has gone, too," said Nancy, suddenly noticing that the sentinel of the corn-field was bare-headed.

"Tee, hee, hee," chuckled Mister Scare Crow again. "I didn't lose that either. I threw it away, too!"

"Indeed," declared Mister Dodger. "You're getting quite frivolous in your old age, Cousin Scare Crow. It isn't everybody who can afford such extravagance."

"Extravagance nothing!" denied Mister Scare Crow, suddenly growing so sober. "One is never extravagant when helping out a friend. And if Farmer Brown can't trust me with a real gun and real bullets, one has to do the best he can."

"Whatever on earth are you talking about?" demanded Mister Dodger. "Please explain yourself."

"That's what you should have said in the first place," remarked Mister Scare Crow amicably, "without jumping at conclusions. I'll tell you all about it. Do you know, Dan, the big dog?"

"Yes!" cried the Twins.

"Oh, yes, yes, indeed," echoed Mister Dodger.

"Then I think that you'll agree that I did exactly right," said Mister Scare Crow. "Well, then has a burying place." "A burying place!" cried all three listeners.

"Yes!" nodded Mister Scare Crow. "For bones. He had to have it a secret, so he buried all his bones right here at my feet. He really has quite a hoard and I never told a soul."

"But one day, Tike, Farmer Smith's dog, discovered his secret and started to dig the bones all up."

"I didn't know what to do at first, I was so upset. And then I thought of my gun. I let it drop right on his back as hard as I could. He backed and ran away, but by and by he came back. So I had to do some more thinking."

"Then my tin pan had popped into my head. The very thing! So I shook it off and it not only landed on him, but made enough noise for a war. He ran like a streak and I don't think he'll come back this time," chuckled the straw man.

Nick picked up his gun and Nancy got his hat.

Mister Dodger shook his limp straw hand heartily. "You're what I call a real friend!" he declared. "I apologize for every word."

Many Killed in German Food Riots

WOMEN ATTACK GERMAN IRON WORKS IN PROTEST AGAINST LOSS OF HUSBANDS' WAGES

Women Also Raided Food Shops in Gelsenkirchen—Six to Eight Killed in Food Riots in Mannheim—State of Siege Declared—More Troops to Be Rushed Into Saxony

GELSENKIRCHEN, Ruhr Valley, Oct. 18. (By the Associated Press.) A mob of women attacked and badly damaged the administration building of the Mannesmann iron works here today. The assault was in protest against the non-payment of wages due the women's husbands. The officials of the works pleaded lack of currency as the reason for their failure to pay the men's wages.

The women also raided food shops and afterward visited nearby farms searching for food, in one instance seizing a peasant's furniture.

Six to Eight Killed

MANNHEIM, Germany, Oct. 18. (By the Associated Press.)—From six to eight persons are reported dead and many others wounded as the result of yesterday's food riots in Mannheim, during which frequent clashes occurred between the demonstrators and the police.

The trouble was the outgrowth of the high prices of food, resulting in a general strike and the cutting off of the water, gas, electric and street car services. A state of siege was declared by the police last night and the streets were cleared at 9 o'clock.

Rioting in Saxony

BERLIN, Oct. 18. (By the Associated Press.)—The frequency of rioting in Saxony and the defiant stand taken by the socialist-communist ministry at Dresden, are causing such concern here that the general government is prepared to send additional troops into Saxony should the situation require it. Advice from Munich indicates that Bavaria also is watching the affairs of her neighbor state, inasmuch as some of the disorders in the Saxon industrial districts have occurred close to the Bavarian frontier.

Ignore Ultimatum

BERLIN, Oct. 18. (By the Associated Press.) The government of Saxony, having ignored the ultimatum of Gen. von Mueller, commander of the Reichswehr in that state, expiring at 11 a. m. today, the general sent a second letter to Premier Zeigner, saying: "As you have not thought it fit to answer my letter, I beg to inform you that I have referred the affair to the minister of defense."

GOV. BAXTER SAYS MAINE UNABLE TO COPE WITH RUM SMUGGLING ALONG COAST—WANTS WARSHIPS

WEST BADEN, Ind., Oct. 18.—Governor Baxter of Maine, before an informal gathering of several governors here today, asserted "the time has passed when vague declarations for law enforcement or law aid order may be regarded as a statement of public policy by government officials." Declaring that in his opinion, prohibition enforcement would be the predominant national issue in 1924, he said officials now are called upon to state in unmistakable terms their attitude.

Turning to Maine, Governor Baxter told the governors that two fast destroyers could wipe out rum smuggling along the 2500 miles of state coast "in 30 days, if the navy would attack the problem with true American vigor." Maine is successful in dry enforcement within its own jurisdiction, Governor Baxter declared, but is unable to cope with smuggling operations without assistance from federal authorities.

War Weapons for Boston Police

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—So that criminals from other cities may not flock to Boston thinking that the police here are unable to do battle with them, Superintendent of Police Michael H. Crowley, in a report issued today, said that his force had been fitted out with machine and riot guns, army rifles, gas bombs and gas masks, and bullet proof vests.

Fishing Smack Wrecked—Crew Saved

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—An unidentified fishing smack broke up in a heavy sea off Coney Island today, its crew of 15 men being rescued from small boats by a tug. A number of launches went to the assistance of the smack, but were tossed to sea by the waves. Some of these rescue craft were believed to have foundered.

Imperial Kludd Too Ill to Appear in Court

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 18.—Dr. Caleb A. Ridley, imperial kludd of the K. K. K. and former pastor of the Central Baptist church of Atlanta, was reported "too ill" by his attorneys to appear in police court this morning to face charges of "drunk and operating an automobile." The case was postponed until Saturday.

Only When Weather is Severe May Signal Be Authorized, According to Rule

Consider the no-school signal, that much beloved 2-2-2, so much to be desired by the younger set, and which more often than not, sends anxious feet scurrying toward motion picture houses or to the little mud pond down at the corner where a raft cruising expedition makes play hours pass all too quickly.

Superintendent of Schools Hugh J. Molloy cocked his weather eye out of his office window this forenoon, watched the drizzling rain patter down on opposite roofs, said the farmers will

EX-U. S. DIPLOMAT AT STOKES TRIAL

Horace G. Knowles Says He Saw Mrs. Stokes on Stairs Near Wallace's Room

Presence of Knowles, Who Did Not Appear at First Trial Came as Surprise

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Horace G. Knowles, formerly in the United States diplomatic service in Rumania, Bulgaria, Bolivia and Peru, today testified at the trial of W. E. P. Stokes' suit for divorce against Helen Elwood Stokes, that he had seen Mrs. Stokes on the stairs leading to the apartment of Edgar T. Wallace.

Knowles, now a practicing lawyer, said he knew Wallace and that in 1914 he had visited a man with whom Wallace shared an apartment in 25th street. Asked whether he had seen Mrs. Stokes there, after the defendant had been pointed out to him in the courtroom, the witness answered:

"To the best of my knowledge and belief I did see her on the stairs leading to the apartment and in the flat of Wallace."

Appearance as a witness of Knowles, who did not appear at the first trial of the suit, came as a surprise.

Knowles, who said he was an ex-

RAT POISON MAY BE RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OF CATS

The Pied-Piper device of H. T. Pitts, Lowell's expert volunteer rat annihilator, is raising havoc with the city's cats, according to Agent Charles H. Richardson of the Humane society. During the past few days, the society's agents have been kept quite busy removing dead cats from office buildings and homes, and the prieved owners have asked the humane authorities to investigate the cause of death.

When Mr. Pitts started his rat extermination crusade the public was given to understand that the process employed was harmless except when applied to rats. Mr. Richardson believes that cats are dying, not from partaking outright of the forbidden fruit, but from digesting rats that have been victimized by the Pitts preparation.

TWO ARRESTED AFTER GRILLING

W. A. Ford, Son-in-Law of One of Fire Victims and Raymond Anderson Held

Arrested on Charges of Murder and Arson—Police Claim One Confessed

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—A sensational aftermath of a fire which early last Monday destroyed a Brooklyn home and caused the death of six persons came today with the arrest of William A. Ford, a real estate broker, and son-in-law of one of the fire victims, and Raymond Anderson on charges of murder and arson.

A third man, James H. Lynch, an accountant, was held as a witness, and a fourth, whose identity is known to the police, was being sought as an accomplice.

Ford is the son-in-law of George Keim, playwright, whose death in the fire came on the eve of the production

Five Motor Boats Caught in Sudden Squall Off Steeplechase Pier

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Coney Island police reported today that five motor boats had been caught in a sudden squall about a quarter of a mile off Steeplechase Pier and were in serious distress.

The police report said that the boats were being blown out to sea. A police launch was ordered to their assistance and a call was sent to the Brooklyn navy yard for tugs. Four of the motor boats carried passengers. The fifth had only a crew aboard.

CITY SOLICITOR ORDERS POLICE TO PREVENT PROPOSED CLOSING OF DEAD HORSE LANE

Finds it is a Public Way—Runs From Rogers Street to Clark Road—Recent Purchaser of Land Abutting Lane Wants it Closed—Has Been Public Way Since Indian Days

Dead Horse lane is now the subject of dispute for the reason that an owner who has recently purchased some land there has undertaken to close it.

The neighbors in the vicinity have protested and the matter has been brought to the attention of City Solicitor Reynolds.

Most people would ask, "Where is this Dead Horse lane?"

It runs from Rogers street between Alumni field and Red Village, curving to the right to Clark road.

Engineer Kearney was appealed to in order to ascertain whether "Dead Horse lane" is a public way. The city solicitor looked up the matter also and arrived at the conclusion that way from time immemorial; indeed it might be said since the Indians made it their pathway through the woods to reach their fishing grounds on the banks of the Merrimack.

What was to be done to keep it open? Some of the neighbors suggested an injunction, getting the idea that almost anything can be done nowadays by the injunction method.

But City Solicitor Reynolds allowed that no injunction is necessary, inasmuch as the police are duly authorized to keep all the highways and byways open to the public and hence Supt. Atkinson of the police department was notified to send forthwith the necessary force of police to prevent the closing of Dead Horse lane, with full power to arrest anybody who persists in obstructing this public way.

For the present and for the future, therefore, Dead Horse lane will be an open pathway as it has been in the past, free to the public without any obstruction whatever.

Why was Dead Horse lane so named? Nobody can tell; but there is a tradition that in the days of the early settlers, before there were any boards of health and before the mind of man conceived of such an institution as the Lowell Rendering Works, it was the custom to drag the carcasses of dead horses down a lane leading into the thick woods and a considerable distance away from the habitation of man. From this it is supposed the pathway obtained its name; but for generations past it has been used as a wagon road and a path for hunters and others, and never before was there any attempt made to close it against the public until came the new owner of an abutting lot who was told he would have free use of the lane in front forever. But he has discovered that Dead Horse lane was not included in his purchase.

LEGION IN DEADLOCK

Delegates at Convention
Split on Bonus and Ku
Klux Klan Issues

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Interest of delegates to the fifth annual convention of the American Legion centered in the stand to be taken by the organization on important public questions. Confronted with the necessity for speedy action on resolutions prepared by committees during the past two days the delegates today wrestled with recommendations and found the harmonizing of widely divergent views among the Legionnaires their most difficult task.

The K.K.K. issue, which developed into a deadlock yesterday with Michigan delegates holding out for complete repudiation of the organization, was one of the major questions confronting the delegates today. Likewise, the bonus problem, upon which some of the delegates hold divergent views, loomed forth importantly in today's deliberations. A spirit of compromise developed in connection with both issues last night.

MASS NOTICE

She leaves two brothers, John E. and Joseph M. Coleman; one sister, Mrs. William Tyrrell; a nephew, Russell Coleman; two nieces, the Misses Leslie Tyrrell and Mildred Coleman. She was a member of the Children of Mary sodality of the Sacred Heart church.

Two Arrested After Grilling

of his first play, accepted after years of endeavor.

All-Night Grilling
The arrests followed an all-night grilling of the prisoners by Elia Marshall Brophy, who declared he had obtained a confession from Anderson. Ill-feeling between Kalm and his son-in-law was said to have existed for several years, according to Brophy, and Kalm, it was understood, was to have appeared in a Hempstead, L. I., court to testify against Ford in an assault case the day of his death.

Anderson, according to Brophy, accused Ford and the unidentified man, also a stranger to him, of having driven to Kalm's home early Monday morning after they had spent the Sunday evening with two girls, and with having fired the house. Kalm, three women and two other men perished in the flames.

Man of 74 Is "Rejuvenated" in 3 Weeks Without Gland Surgery

THOMAS J. GLASCOCK

Kansas Contractor Tells of Wonderful Results Obtained in Test of New Scientific Discovery

Thomas J. Glascock, well known Kansas contractor, declares he has virtually been made young again by the recently discovered kortex compound, which is pronounced superior to "gland treatment" as an invigorator and revitalizer.

"I feel like I did at 35," says Mr. Glascock, "and seem to be getting stronger every day. During my three weeks' use of the new discovery, pains and weaknesses of many years' standing disappeared almost magically. Today I am as vigorous and supple as I was in the prime of life. Furthermore, when I began using the compound, my memory was virtually gone and I was almost blind. Now my mind is clear and active and I can read the finest print without difficulty."

In order to find out whether the results were lasting, Mr. Glascock waited six months before reporting on his test of the discovery. On this point he says:

"Every passing day strengthens my conviction that my restoration is not only complete but permanent. I can't express the happiness this great discovery has brought to me. It has made me 'young' again."

Similar reports are being made almost daily. For instance, D. W. Wood of New Orleans, past 60 years of age, says: "The compound has brought me back to as good healthy physical condition as I enjoyed at 35. I am apparently as supple as at 25 and my eyesight is better than for years. I would not take $3000 for what the discovery has done for me."

The compound is a simple home treatment in tablet form, absolutely harmless, yet rated as the quickest and most powerful invigorator known. Acting directly on lower spinal nerve centers and certain glands and blood vessels, it often brings amazing benefits in 24 to 36 hours, according to thousands who have tested it.

"It is wonderful," writes a resident of Hollister, Cal. "In less than 24 hours you can feel it does the work. It makes one feel young as a young man. I am more than happy and glad I tried it."

Another Californian says: "The compound is a world's wonder. I feel like I was about 25 and here I am nearly 60!"

The compound has been tested in all parts of the country and has won the praises of thousands who suffered from nerve weakness, lost or depleted vigor, neurasthenia, premature age, impaired muscular activity and lack of animation and vital force. Its effects seem to be virtually the same on both young and old. Physicians say the principal active ingredient of the compound gives speedy satisfaction in obstinate cases that defy all other treatments. Elderly people pronounce the discovery a real "fountain of youth."

Realizing that thousands of enfeebled half-alive folk may consider such news "too good to be true," the American distributors have agreed to supply a double-strength treatment of the discovery on a guaranteed trial basis to everyone in need of such a preparation.

If you wish to test the compound under a money-back guarantee, write in strict confidence to the Melton Laboratories, 3553 Melton Building, Kansas City, Mo., for a two-dollar treatment of a kortex compound, mailed in a plain, sealed wrapper. You may enclose two dollars, or simply send your name, without money, and pay two dollars and postage on delivery, as you prefer. In either case, however, if you report within ten days that you are not satisfied, the laboratories will refund the purchase price upon request. These laboratories are nationally known and thoroughly reliable, so nobody need hesitate about accepting their guaranteed offer.—Adv.

terprise, were said to have broken business relations several years ago.

Anderson, Ford and the unidentified man, accompanied by two telephone operators, spent Sunday evening in driving about in Ford's motor car. After the girls had been returned to their home, Anderson was alleged to have told Marshall Brophy, Ford drove to his home and went inside, returning soon with a can and a bottle believed by the prisoner to have contained kerosene and gasoline.

The trio then drove to the Keim home. Anderson was alleged to have charged, and Ford and the stranger disappeared behind the house, leaving Anderson in the car. They ran back to the car in a few minutes, Brophy said, he was told, and flames shot up from the rear of the house.

Lyne's only connection with the case, Brophy said, consisted in his having been present at Anderson's home early Sunday when the unidentified man, believed to have accompanied the alleged arson expedition, called on Anderson.

Anderson, according to Brophy, said he refused to take part in the arson plot beyond driving Ford's car. He said Ford accused him of being "yellow."

Ford, Brophy said, denied Anderson's story.

Officers who went to arrest him had to enter the house through a window, they said, and found Ford huddled in bed, with the blankets pulled over his head. He screamed hysterically on seeing the police, they said. A newspaper clipping of an account of the fire was found in Ford's pocket, Brophy said.

PRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

LOWELL HAS EXCELLENT WATER SUPPLY

High praise for Lowell's water supply system followed a thorough examination of the water works and well fields yesterday by engineers of the state division of sanitary engineering and a special legislative committee appointed for the purpose of investigating water supplies in Merrimack valley cities, particularly Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill.

There has been considerable agitation in Lawrence and Haverhill for new water supplies and the proposition was advanced to dam Salmon brook in Dunstable, the cost to be shared proportionally by the three cities named. Lowell was not particularly interested in the proposition inasmuch as the local supply is adequate and of extremely high test.

The special commission which visited the city yesterday, headed by N. H. Goodenough, director and chief engineer of the division of sanitary engineering, expressed great surprise at local conditions, saying they stand out in marked contrast to conditions in other cities where water supplies are dangerously low and water available below standard.

Among those who took part in the investigation were Senator Frank H. Putnam, Rep. Fred O. Lewis, Dennis J. Murphy, chairman of the public service board; Robert Gardner, superintendent, and James H. Reynolds, assistant superintendent of the Lowell water works, and 12 members of the state committee, including Engineer Goodenough.

AUTOMOBILE MAKES 27 MILES ON AIR

An automobile goes 27 miles on air by using an automatic device which was installed in less than 5 minutes. The automobile was only making 30 miles on a gallon of gasoline but after this remarkable invention was installed, it made better than 57. The inventor, Mr. J. A. Stransky, 29 Eleventh street, Pukwana, South Dakota, wants agents and is willing to send a sample at his own risk. Write him today.—Adv.

There were about 10 members in attendance at Tuesday night's meeting and Commander Ralph A. Dodge appointed several committees.

Next Friday there will be a meeting of the citizens' committee, of which His Honor, Mayor Donovan, is an active member. It is hoped that plans for a publicity campaign will be formulated at this meeting. The support of various organizations throughout the city is needed in making Forget Me Not day a success. The committee will be pleased to hear from girl volunteers over 15 years of age. All such desiring to collect funds are asked to communicate with R. A. Dodge, 1011 Central street.

This Little World

BY CASUAL STROLLER

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. Many small bootleggers in New York are using baby carriage and some bags, which are easy way to make their house-to-house calls.

A visitor to the city, not knowing this, started down Fifth avenue with a baby carriage and some bags, which he wanted to bring to the baggage room of 10th Street Central station. Women peered into the carriage and laughed knowingly. Cops at the street crossings looked suspiciously and then sneaked their lips.

The poor man was becoming more and more embarrassed, when finally he heard one woman whisper to another: "There goes a baby buggy bootlegger."

But the joke was on her. He wasn't.

If you like the music of the bells walk up Fifth avenue as far as 50th street some Sunday morning and listen to the chimes of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

High rents in New York? Not for 20 tenants of a tenement house in East 14th street, The Bronx. Three years ago somebody threw a chair at the rent collector and he fled and never returned. Meanwhile the landlord, George Hagelweide, was out in Montana developing mining properties and worrying not at all about his New York tenement house which he thought was pouring a steady stream of money into his bank account.

The other day he came back and found his 20 tenants hadn't paid any rent for 40 months—and some even argued that his failure to be on the job and collect rents was equivalent to surrendering the property to the tenants! A court has ruled otherwise, but Hagelweide, a sadder and wiser man, finds that most of his tenants are broke.

The moral is: Even landlords have their troubles.

How much is it worth to get a show "pinched"? A couple of seasons ago "The Deal Virgin" waxed fat in the box office after somebody had the producer arrested. Last winter "The God of Vengeance" was dragged into court as indecent and the show had to move out of Greenwich Village into a large uptown theatre to accommodate the crowds. Now the enterprising press agent of Broadway's newest show is trying to get somebody to raise a hullabaloo about it. He has been sending complimentary tickets to ministers, educators, police officials—to anybody who would seem likely to be shocked.

And during the show he edges up to his quarry and says: "Well, what do you think of it? Pretty raw, eh? Think it ought to be censored?" "Well," comes more than one reply. "I don't know now. I think I'll have to come and see it again some time!"

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser!

Pittsburgh Man Tells How His Trouble Was Brought To End

"Well, sir, if any man has cause to be glad he tried Tangle, I am that man," declared William Tietz, a machinist, of 406 Bowley street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

For two years, I was in misery from stomach trouble. My kidneys also bothered me. I had backache continually, couldn't sleep right, and didn't feel like working at all.

Tangle drove those ailments right out, put me to eating, sleeping and feeling fine, and I now call myself a well man."

Tangle is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Almost everyone knows that Sage and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray. Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Adv.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Quickly and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex, then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out, and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ut. Wayne, Ind.

and means followed the election and many suggestions were made as to the method of carrying on the work that were approved by the secretary, Alice M. Bell, and will be used in the future.

The sacrifices made during the long period of unemployment of the preceding year began to tell early in the winter of 1923, by the breakdown in health among the families. Particularly noticeable was the sickness among children due to undernourishment.

Long periods of illness break down moral fibre and street begging has markedly increased throughout the city.

To save the home broken by death, desertion, divorce, laid low by sickness, ignorance or vice, means setting a foundation stone for good citizenship. To give the children, our future citizens, an opportunity to gain health, education and wholesome recreation in a well-ordered home, fulfils the task of the Lowell Social Service League.

THE CONFIDENTIAL EXCHANGE.

The registration in the confidential volume up to date is 13,882.

During the past year there were 1370 inquiries. Why so few inquiries with many people interested in social work? Is it not because workers do not recognize this to be an important piece of machinery in making an intelligent plan for treatment of family and individual problems?

We are learning every day that we are not sufficient unto ourselves. Reg-

PAINS IN BACK YIELD QUICKLY

Mr. Massey Suffered Severely But Found a Remedy That Restored His Health

The muscles of the back sustain the most severe strains of any in the body and they must be kept well nourished or they will rebel. When the blood is thin these muscles are starved and pain results. The following account well illustrates the symptoms and the remedy in such a case.

"I had a sharp, shooting pain in my back," says Mr. Massey, of No. 132 Lincoln avenue, Central Falls, R. I., "and nothing gave me any permanent relief. I lost weight and color, did not sleep much and had to quit work. At times the pain would catch me suddenly and nearly double me up. I hobbled around for a long time and finally got so bad that I could not help myself and had to be turned over in bed.

"Upon the advice of friends who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with benefit I started to take them and after I had used the first box I felt so much better I could hardly believe it. I could walk without fear of that terrible drawing up with pain and soon the pain was all gone from my back. I continued using the pills and put on weight. My appetite is good now and my food seems to agree with me. I am very much pleased with what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me and can honestly recommend them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Send for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."—Adv.

later your cases and give the next worker the benefit of your contact. We take only the names and addresses. You keep the information. The family is saved from over-investigation and needless experiments by use of the exchange. The best service is none too good for our clients. Let us get together.

Respectfully submitted,

ALICE M. BELL,

General Secretary.

A treasurer to succeed Allan D. Parker will be elected at the next meeting of the board of directors of the organization.

Quickly Heals

Old Sores and

Conquers Piles

Also Stops Itching of Eczema Almost Immediately

"Peterson's Ointment Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—I want to tell you how much I love Peterson's Ointment for the good it has done me. My sore was on my left leg, was 4½ inches by 2½ inches wide. It was all healed up beautifully now, and when I was in such a raw state, I can't say enough praise for the good it has done me and will say a good word in your favor." Very truly yours, Miss Kate Kull, Sigel, Ill.

"I'd rather get a letter like that," says Peterson of Buffalo, "than have John D. Rockefeller give me a thousand dollars. It does me a lot of good to be able to be of use to my fellow man."

"For years I have been selling through druggists a large box of PETERSON'S OINTMENT for 35 cents. The healing power in this ointment is marvelous. Eczema goes in a few days. Old sores heal up like new. Piles that other remedies do not seem to even relieve are speedily conquered."

It stops itching in five minutes and for scalds and burns it is simply wonderful.—Adv.

Painful Rheumatic Swellings Disappear

Discoverer Tells Druggist Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Al-

lenrin Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called ALLENRIN to others who took it, with what might be called marvellous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense ALLENRIN with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. All druggists can supply you.—Adv.

DORMITORY MEN TO ELECT VILLAGE OFFICERS

The dormitory residents of the Y. M.C.A. held their first meeting on the fall and winter season last night. Dinner for over 50 men was served at 6:15 o'clock and was followed by a business meeting.

In order that the newer and older residents might become better acquainted, the dinner, one by one, arose at the end of the dinner making known their name, their room number, their occupation and place of employment.

Burpee Barchard, dormitory secretary, presided at the opening of the meeting but surrendered the chair to Percy Douglas as temporary chairman or "acting mayor of Red Village." Nomination for village officers for the ensuing year found Mr. Douglas sole nominee for village clerk. Edward Brown and Archibald D. Grant were nominated for mayor. One councilman from each ward will be chosen. The nominees: First ward, Frank Sawyer, Yvonne Peterson, second ward, R. M. Trach, F. A. Lawlor, third ward, Charles Gammache, L. F. Ripley, fourth ward, Charles Mason, Bronde Zion, Herbert Dumesnil. Ballots will be cast on Oct. 25 and 27. The dinners will be a weekly feature during the fall and winter months.

LOWELL REPRESENTED AT BOSTON MEETING

A series of conventions which have been held during the past three months throughout the United States between representatives of the Post-office department at Washington, and postal employees and the general public in the 48 states of the Union, culminated yesterday in a meeting in Faneuil hall in Boston, which was attended by a large Lowell delegation.

The hall was packed and the meeting developed into an extraordinary airing of the troubles that best postal officials on one hand, the employees on the other, and the general public. That the service is to be improved was indicated from several sources, and the postal district, it was announced, will be given 254 additional clerks, carriers and laborers.

Among those who attended from this city were the following: Postmaster Xavier A. Delfino, superintendent of Mails Joseph P. Meehan, Foreman George L. Hunt, Carriers John J. Cloutier and Patrick J. Owens, and Clerk Bernard D. Ward and Frank H. McHugh. About 25 carriers and 15 clerks went to Boston for the afternoon sessions.

The regular morning schedules were compiled out on every route but in accordance with instructions from the postal department at Washington, employees on certain routes in residential sections were released at noon in order that they might attend the afternoon sessions. In doing this, it was necessary to eliminate deliveries in certain residential sections during the afternoon, but the business districts received the usual afternoon service.

WELFARE WORKERS SELECT THORNTON

The Lowell district council of Welfare Workers met at Marie's restaurant last night, about 25 representatives attending. William F. Thornton was appointed chairman of the membership committee. The next meeting will be held Nov. 23.

Edmund J. Cheney is president of the organization. Miss Alice M. Bell, vice-president; Miss Mabel Armstrong, secretary; and J. Fred Gilmore, treasurer.

ROLLER SKATING AT THE KASINO

The roller skating season is on. Tonight the Kasino management, after extensive preparations, will present in first-class skating floor which will compare favorably with any in New England. A new assortment of "rollers" has arrived and devices of the regular indoor sport may rest assured that every convenience and comfort will be accorded them during the coming season, as in the past.

The Kasino enters the roller skating world after a most successful season of dancing. The large and neatly polished floor is well adapted to skating as those who have used it in the past well know. From now until further notice, regular programs will be conducted every afternoon and evening, with musical accompaniment.

Besides the sport to be derived from roller skating, it is a recognized fact that leading physicians throughout the country strongly endorse roller skating as one of the best forms of exercise. It is invigorating and healthful, requiring the employment of muscles that otherwise suffer from lack of exercise. The practice is especially recommended to women.

HARVEST SUPPER AT WORTHEN ST. CHURCH

URGES WAIT

Israel Zangwill, Jewish author and publicist, has asked his countrymen to forego their political hopes in Palestine for the present, to mobilize against another war, since "the hour of destiny for Israel has passed."

The hall was packed and the meeting developed into an extraordinary airing of the troubles that best postal officials on one hand, the employees on the other, and the general public.

That the service is to be improved was indicated from several sources, and the postal district, it was announced, will be given 254 additional clerks, carriers and laborers.

Among those who attended from this city were the following: Postmaster Xavier A. Delfino, superintendent of Mails Joseph P. Meehan, Foreman George L. Hunt, Carriers John J. Cloutier and Patrick J. Owens, and Clerk Bernard D. Ward and Frank H. McHugh. About 25 carriers and 15 clerks went to Boston for the afternoon sessions.

The regular morning schedules were compiled out on every route but in accordance with instructions from the postal department at Washington, employees on certain routes in residential sections were released at noon in order that they might attend the afternoon sessions. In doing this, it was necessary to eliminate deliveries in certain residential sections during the afternoon, but the business districts received the usual afternoon service.

WELFARE WORKERS SELECT THORNTON

The Lowell district council of Welfare Workers met at Marie's restaurant last night, about 25 representatives attending. William F. Thornton was appointed chairman of the membership committee. The next meeting will be held Nov. 23.

Edmund J. Cheney is president of the organization. Miss Alice M. Bell, vice-president; Miss Mabel Armstrong, secretary; and J. Fred Gilmore, treasurer.

ROLLER SKATING AT THE KASINO

The roller skating season is on. Tonight the Kasino management, after extensive preparations, will present in first-class skating floor which will compare favorably with any in New England. A new assortment of "rollers" has arrived and devices of the regular indoor sport may rest assured that every convenience and comfort will be accorded them during the coming season, as in the past.

Physician Explains Who Should Take Nuxated Iron

Practical Advice on How To Help Build Up Great Strength, Energy and Endurance

"Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life," says Dr. Emil Bauer, well-known New England physician. "It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. I have strongly emphasized the great necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their weak, anemic, run-down patients. Thousands of persons go on year after year suffering from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your food merely passes through the body without being absorbed through an old mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind."

"For want of iron you may be an old man at thirty, dull of intellect, poor in memory, nervous, irritable and all run down while at 50 or 60 with plenty of iron in your blood you may still be young in feeling, full of life, your whole being brimming over with vim and energy."

"But be sure the iron you take is organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not metallic iron which people usually take. Organic iron—Nuxated Iron—is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lettuce and apples. While metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings and is therefore an entirely different thing from Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half a quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen baked apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat."

"Overlooked people usually are anemic. Nuxated Iron, it quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalizes worn-out, exhausted nerves and gives increased strength and energy. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if it does not produce satisfactory results."

The continued co-operation of motorists and pedestrians will carry us safely through the month. Pass this slogan on to the reckless driver: 'What's your hurry? ## Some Families Are Never Ill

FORTUNATE are the children whose parents fully realize the seriousness of constipation. Hospital records prove that 75 per cent of all disease originates in bowel obstruction, or constipation. Young children cry because of it; school children are hampered in their studies; grown people are made 25 per cent less efficient; elderly people's blood pressure increases 28 per cent. Realizing this Mrs. Carrie Moss of 1714 Church st., Lynchburg Va., Mr. Louis C. Grall of 1569 Winton ave., Lakewood, Ohio, and innumerable others, give a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at the first sign of constipation, and have no sickness among their children.

Largest Selling Laxative

Every up-to-date family medicine chest should contain a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and palatable aromatics, a prescription written 30 years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who practiced medicine 47 years. You can buy a bottle in any store where medicines are sold, and the cost is less than a cent a dose. We guarantee that if you will give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to a child or for a few nights to an adult it will relieve any case of constipation no matter how chronic, or your money will be refunded.

10 Million Bottles a Year

Use it once and you will never again take coal-tar drugs in candy form, calomel or salts. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a vegetable laxative free from opiates and narcotics. It can be safely given to infants, yet it effectively moves the bowels of adults. It acts gently; does not cramp or gripe; keep it in the house and use it for any indication of bowel obstruction such as constipation, biliousness, torpid liver, dyspepsia, pimples and like skin eruptions. Give it early and it will break up a fever or a cold overnight. A spoonful proves it.

THIS LITTLE BABY GIRL

Was Benefited by the Good Her Mother Got from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my little girl was born, and the effect it had was wonderful. This will be the first child I have nursed, as I had to bring my two boys up on the bottle. I was very nervous and worried, tired all the time, and after I read about the Vegetable Compound I tried it and kept on with it. I still continue its use and recommend it to my friends. You may publish these facts as a testimonial for your medicine."—Mrs. Wm. KLINGE, 169 Plymouth St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after the birth of the child, and for each mother the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother at this time. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
Attendance at the "Fall Fashion Revue," at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week, threatens to break all records. The prettiness and the novelty of this splendid act—or series of acts—is apparent from the time the first curtain ascends on it. It is in three scenes, and each one of them brings fashion views which are entrancing. A large company, the greater part of which is from this city, most ably assists in the production, while the Lowell merchants who are represented give of the very best of their wares. The remainder of the bill is varied. No-Watters & Dyson present a snappy vaudeville turn, with music and dancing, and Thomer & Day have a novelty sketch. The Four Faye Girls are musicians, playing the concertina and the piano. Their work is very highly praised. Billy Beard is an unusual blackface comedy man, and Burns & Willis cut capers. The week's big picture feature is "Youthful Cheaters."

THE STRAND

Priscilla Dean continues to make her appearance in strong emotional roles that bring out the best qualities of her dramatic ability. In "Drifting," the big Universal-Jewel production, which opens a three days' engagement today at The Strand, she again reflects her exceptional talent. The story is an intensely dramatic one, with thrills aplenty. It concerns a white woman practically alone in a section of China and engaged in a dangerous occupation—selling the opium that is the curse of the Mongolian race.

Patsy Ruth Miller is the leading woman in the latest, "The Fighting Lady," which opened today at The Strand. This picture story has South America as its locale, and the action carries one through a series of real thrills. Williams was never seen to better advantage than in this latest production. It's a hummer.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

This week at the Opera House a dramatization of "The Fighting Lady," entitled "Wild Oats Lane," is the offering of the Al. Luttrell stock players. Considered the greatest moral drama ever staged, "Wild Oats Lane" has come to Lowell endorsed by clergy and press all over the country. The book has been read by millions and the play seen by thousands all with the same impression. "Wild Oats Lane" is one of the plays of the season which give the players of the Opera House an opportunity to show what they can do.

RIALTO THEATRE

For today only at the Rialto, Lionel Barrymore will be seen in "The Devil's Garden," and Tom Mix stars in "Arabia." In "The Devil's Garden," Barrymore gives a characterization that requires every bit of skill that this sterling actor has at his command, that of a man with a violent temper. On the same bill today, Tom Mix will be seen in "Arabia," a story of the desert with Mix doing a little of the "shakle" business. Among the best pictures of the season, you will find heading every list "Tolaine David," with Richard Barthelmess, which is the feature attraction for tomorrow, Friday. Barthelmess is supported by a splendid cast which includes Ernest Torrence who has the best part in "The Covered Wagon." All critics agree that "Tolaine David" is the one outstanding film classic of the year. Don't miss it.

MERRIMACK SQUARE
Zane Grey's novel, "To the Last Man," as pictured by Paramount, opened a three days' engagement at the Merrimack Square theatre this afternoon. This is the story of a famous feud between cattlemen and sheepmen in Arizona, which was fought out literally to the last man. It is filled with action and has dramatic situations, which are again to arouse the enthusiasm of moving picture fans to a high pitch. Richard Dix, Luis Wilson, Noah Berry, Robert Edison and Frank Campbell are leading players in the cast. It is a picture every lover of virile photoplays will heartily enjoy.

The second feature for the last half of the week is "Cordelia," the magnificent starring Clara Kimball Young in one of the most entertaining photoplays of the present season. The usual excellent surrounding program is also being shown.

The management announces the engagement of "The Cheat," the celebrated stage play in screen form, for next Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Polo Negri, Jack Holt and Charles de Roche are in the featured roles.

PRESIDENT

This is Marshal Tano-Kun, former military governor of the province of Chih-li, who has just been elected president of the republic of China. This exclusive photo of him is his latest and best.

CURTAILING TRANSPORTATION

The present week sees the beginning of the end of street railway service from Nashua east and south. More's the pity, although where profitable operations are not the rule, the street railway corporations cannot be blamed for refusing to run street cars at a continuous loss and thereby increasing enormous debts already incurred in other directions.

For the first time in 30 years the street railway service from Nashua, east and south, will be cut off, Manchester to the north being the only street railway out of Nashua in the future. And this service was the latest to be established, the other lines to be discontinued being among the very first constructed in the old-time days of transportation prosperity.

As an act of simple formality, there was a hearing last week on the petition of the Massachusetts Northern Electric Railway company before the New Hampshire public service commission for permission to discontinue operating cars west of "Point A," Pelham, into Nashua. That cuts off Nashua on the Haverhill-Lawrence line as it had before been cut off on the Lowell line. The loss of car service seriously affects residents of Hudson, N. H., many of whom work daily in Nashua mills, shops and business places.

It is said that many car commuters built homes in Hudson and along the railway line when the street car service was flourishing, and now find themselves in a rather annoying situation with many inconveniences involving their journeys to and from the workshops daily. The commuters, accused of not patronizing the Hudson line, come back with the assertion that shams in patronage were caused solely by the increases in fares. The popularity of automobiles as modern means of quick transportation both for long and short distances, is the chief explanatory rejoinder of the street railway heads.

THE SPINNERS' REAL PROBLEM

The shortage of cotton is undoubtedly the greatest problem facing the cotton spinning industry today, says W. Irving Bullard, treasurer of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers. Mr. Bullard is taking a new angle in the nationwide discussion of the present spinning dearth of numerous cotton textile mill operations in the northern states of the union. It is worth inspection, this frank declaration on the part of one of the leading men in the national cotton textile manufacturing industry. Mr. Bullard declares that during the past two years the world has consumed about 41,000,000 bales of cotton and has produced only 32,000,000 bales. During this brief space of time, it has drawn on the world's reserves to the extent of almost a full American crop, as American crops are figured today. And it must be borne in mind, too, in this connection, that in the past 24 months foreign cotton mills have been curtailing extensively. If they had run full time, the world consumption would have been perhaps 45,000,000 bales and the deficit 13,000,000.

From the standpoint of production during the past two years, of course the situation has somewhat improved. Two years ago the world raised about 11,000,000 bales; last year it grew more than 17,000,000 and this year it will produce, perhaps, around 18,000,000 bales. But this year's production is far below world requirements for if the world's mills are to run full, and to keep 157,000,000 spindles operating on a normal basis, fully 22,000,000 bales of cotton are required.

American manufacturers, buying by the "hand-to-mouth" method for the past eight or nine months, have not on the whole felt the actual shortage of raw material as keenly as one might have expected up to date. Supplying, as they do, principally the domestic markets and with buying power in these markets well sustained by the general prosperity of the country, Lowell manufacturers and other New England mill operators have been able to pay exceptionally high prices for cotton and yet sell up to this time their full output on this basis. The conditions of the future, of course, cannot now be accurately predicted, but with the steady demand for raw cotton coming along from most of the mills in the south, now running on full time according to latest news dispatches, prices are not likely to be greatly lowered right away, at all, before the opening of the 1924 season.

OUR BUILDING PROGRESS

In the national survey of building operations, issued by S. W. Straus & Co., of New York, it appears that the amount of building permits for raw cotton coming along from most of the mills in the south, now running on full time according to latest news dispatches, prices are not likely to be greatly lowered right away, at all, before the opening of the 1924 season.

ARBuckle NOT WANTED

It is announced that Arbuckle is again breaking into the moving picture business as a comedian and that he has already found success in different cities. It is said that Arbuckle will be featured in the theaters of New England. In spite of the fact that he was so much of a charge of people who believe that no man who figured in such a public scandal should be thrust upon the attention of young people, or even a hint in their eyes as to what naturally has come in a public picture drama.

The moving picture business is gradually obtaining a more respectable and a better standard of morals and artistic excellence. Mr. Will Hays, at the head of the industry in this country, is perhaps the man to be thanked for this result, but it is up to the exhibitors to see that the industry is not allowed to degenerate. The Germans are moving away from their country, and the rate of only about $2,000 a year, while there is no place like home, the Germans who are sticking to the efforts to put a bar upon the shows that apparently have a notion that in which Arbuckle appears. Recently has already been said to demonstrate in that public sentiment is opposed to the return of Arbuckle to the movie stage.

GERMAN PROBLEMS

Would you continue living in Germany, if you were born and brought up there, considering its present problems and problems?

Well, the Germans are moving away from their country, and the rate of only about $2,000 a year, while there is no place like home, the Germans who are sticking to the efforts to put a bar upon the shows that apparently have a notion that in which Arbuckle appears. Recently has already been said to demonstrate in that public sentiment is opposed to the return of Arbuckle to the movie stage.

Yesterday the funeral of James D. Mr. Horne, before going to Lawrence, had served as principal of the Lowell evening high school with marked received more votes than both his competitors and won by a walk-over. Having served four terms in congress, he is undoubtedly well equipped to fill the position of United States senator. He is an ardent advocate of the enforcement of the prohibition law and has the support of the anti-saloon league in his campaign. He is a close friend of President Coolidge and was with him in the Vermont farmhouse when the president took the oath of office. It is expected that he will measure up to the standard set by some of the prominent senators who have served the Green Mountain state.

RECKLESS AUTOISTS

So reckless have some of our auto drivers become that it is dangerous for old or young to cross a street even in the thickly settled parts of the city. There is a state law against a speed exceeding eight miles an hour at intersecting streets, but it is violated thousands of times daily on the most crowded streets; and yet the operators seem to think they are entirely within their rights. It is high time, therefore, to bring the speed maniacs to a sense of their duty and the requirements of the law. This can be done only by the police bringing a few of them into court to be punished as the law directs. There must be a stop to the fast driving on such streets as Westford, High, Gorham and others of the same class where no driver can be certain even for a single minute that another vehicle or perhaps a pedestrian will not run out in front of him. If going at moderate speed as required by law, no car stop; but otherwise there will be an accident in which somebody may be maimed or killed.

It is the duty of the police to put a stop to this speeding that has made our streets unsafe everywhere and has already resulted in many fatal accidents.

NO "NO!"

Chinese never say "No," because there isn't any such word in their language. Instead, they give a negative answer: "Bu-Shih," meaning, "Not yes." Professor Lee of Columbia supplies the information.

My, what a wonderful side-stepper and shadow-boxer the Chink would make in American politics.

THE GENERAL VERDICT

The Fall River News, commenting upon the action of the American Federation of Labor in voting against entering politics as a political party, makes the following comment which briefly expresses the prevailing sentiment throughout the country on this subject.

"By a majority of more than 23,000 the convention of the American Federation of Labor has voted against the proposal to use the strength of the unions in the formation of a national political party. The Portland convention stood with all its predecessors against the proposal and this federation is still hostile to every effort to make the craft unions the basis of a political organization. Thus were again displayed the essential conservatism and sound political sense which have made and kept the federation so powerful."

A Thought

It is possible that a man can be so changed by love that one could not recognize him to be the same person.—Terence.

Seeking Easy Street

A street beggar, noticing that a pal was trailing a citizen, fell into step and inquired: "Why are you following that man?" "I heard him say," explained the pal, "that he was on Easy Street." This explanation was nothing more than a bluff. And then: "What if he does live on Easy Street?" "I just want to locate it. I've always thought I'd like to work the back door along that boulevard."

Poor On Exemptions

If Tommy arrived at school late once he arrived late a hundred times. The school teacher began to tire of this sort of thing and when Tommy started staying away for whole afternoons she began to be very suspicious. "Next time you stay away I should like you to bring an excuse from your father," said the one day after the boy had again been absent without leave. "I don't want to bring an excuse from father," said the boy. "Why not?" asked the teacher. "He's no good at home. Mother always finds him out."

A Toast to the Doctor

In the name of thousands of unbroken homes in which midnight hand-to-hand fights with death have been fought and won; in the name of thousands of lives rescued from abhorrent and made useful; in the name of unshed tears and forestalled pain and baffled death—I doff my hat today to the doctor. May he never have use for his own medicine. May each moment of pain he has saved others, shine in the crown of his life like a bright star. May the children to whom he has saved parents and the parents to whom he has saved children take time to acknowledge the doctor's worth. May his patients pay him his bill. And in the inevitable hour may a certain grim adversary recognize a noble foe and deal gently with the doctor.—Detroit News.

Famous Last Words

"I wonder if it's loaded. I'll just look down the barrel and see." "Oh, listen! That's the train whistle. Step on the accelerator and we'll try to get across before it comes." "They say those things can't possibly explode, no matter how much you bang them around."

"It's no fun swimming around in here. Let's go out beyond the life lines." "These traffic cops can't stop me." "What a funny noise that snail makes. I think I'll stop on him."

"Watch out of these is the third rail, anyway." "That freeraker must have gone out. I'll light it again." "What's wrong with you? You can't see the scenery unless you lean out."

"It smells like gas, but I guess it's all right. Lead me a match." "I took some medicine in the dark, and I must have got hold of the wrong kind."

"I'm going up on the roof to cool off." "I'm not afraid to walk on the track." "Let's change places, and I'll pad-dle."

—James Waldo Fawcett, in the Medical Pocket Quarterly.

Miss Opportunity

When Miss Opportunity comes to your door, And barges with the knocker as never before, Just drop what you're doing, and hurry like fun To throw wide your portals and welcome her in!

With a smile and a bow and your compliments air, Just wait her right up to the easiest chair. Remember at last she's a tricky maid, And where she's not wanted she never has stayed!

So look to her comfort and, hovering about that she says lend a listening ear! For—strange in a female—her words are not lost for a moment, she really is through!

And never forget, if you don't treat her right, She'll catch again like a thief in the night, And though you may fancy she'll come back, each time she's a tricky maid, And where she's not wanted she never has stayed!

But if she's made welcome, why, then, she'll be in your mind and to pop in again! To keep you in mind and to pop in again!

AY! To keep you in mind and to pop in again! To keep you in mind and to pop in again!

—M. LINDSAY, in Forbes Magazine, New York.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

As I sat enthused with the thousands in the Memorial Auditorium last Tuesday evening and listened to the glowing words of praise heaped upon Henry Sullivan, I wondered just what thoughts were going through his mind. Naturally, he was unembarrassed, of that there can be little doubt. No human, even though the ego in him be a minus quantity, could stand up under the kindly barrage that was heaped upon the honored guest of the evening. But all the nice things were being said about him, what was he thinking about? I may be wrong in my reasoning, but I like to think that while all was going on Henry Sullivan's thoughts were of his "ma" and "pa," and the joy it was giving them. I like to think that Henry Sullivan was not thinking of his own glory then, but how happy "ma" and "pa" were over the whole affair. For to them he owes all. The grit, courage, and determination he showed in that conquering swim of the channel only exemplified the traits he inherited from a sturdy "ma" and "pa." He performed the physical work of swimming the channel, and that alone required a tremendous amount of effort. But it took more than physical effort, and if Henry Sullivan had not been blessed with a "ma" and "pa" such as he is fortunate in having, he never could have reached the heights. So I like to think that Henry Sullivan realized all this as he sat on the platform last Tuesday night and heard his townfolk sing his praises. And what were the thoughts that were going through the mind of "ma" and "pa" at the same time? What mother or father does not glory in hearing of the accomplishments of their own, and what greater joy could come to any mother or father than to see their only citizen turn out in public tribute to their boy. There may have been many thoughts going in and out their minds as they listened to all, but I like to think that probably the line used by George M. Cohan in his characterization of the Yankee Doodle in "The Yawp" might have been apt in that "ma" and "pa" thoughtfully said to themselves: "Oh, it's about time we had a son like that and to have lived on a night like this."

As a general rule, lawyers are considered good operators and many of them pride themselves on their admitted ability either on the podium or before a jury. It is to be regretted that a single song argument before a jury. But Attorney William H. Wilson frankly admits that once upon a time he sang a tune in an argument before the court. It was during a recess of a probate court sitting in the Gorham street court house, the other way, as Judge A. P. White of Salem was leaving the bench, that Attorney Wilson grew reminiscent and remarked: "There's the only judge that I ever sang a tune to. I was counsel in a case before Judge White that involved a mother and her son, and I represented the mother. There was a good deal of evidence introduced regarding the wayward life the boy had led, and particularly his immoral conduct with his mother. And as I dwelt upon the evidence I concluded my argument, in substance, by saying that it was very evident the son had never heard McCamack sing 'Mother Machree,' and I started to recite the words, but as I went along I found the music creeping in and after I had finished I realized that I had really sung the last stanza in the court. Now I can't say that it was my singing appeal that won the case for me, but the fact remains that the case was decided in our favor."

Among the more important clubs of the city is the Irish Club. This club is an absolutely non-sectarian gathering together of Lowell girls over 16 years of age. On every Monday and Thursday nights during the school year, you can find scores of girls and women gathered together in the club's rooms industriously studying in the midwinter dressmaking and embroidery classes. These classes are under the direct supervision of the city and state board of education. In addition to classes conducted by the club, there is a large recreation hall in which the girls meet at all times for impromptu fun. On every Saturday the club runs a properly chaperoned dancing party for the club members and their friends. During the winter months, the club also conducts hikes, snowshoe parties, skating and all sorts of sports. The club's activities are under the direction of Alice E. Sullivan, Trinity college graduate, assisted by the officers of the club, who are elected yearly. At present the club is handling all its efforts toward the successful presentation of its yearly dramatic effort. This year the club will present "Oh, Oh, Cindy," at the newly renovated Academy of Music on proceeds of this show are used to help support the club and its activities.

In less than three weeks, since Judge Stanley E. Qua opened the present sitting of superior court here, a great deal has already been accomplished in the matter of clearing the docket, and if the present rate is maintained until the end of the scheduled eight weeks' session it is quite likely that a record number of cases will be disposed of. The court docket for several years past has been terribly overcrowded, and the number of cases has been constantly on the increase. But Judge Qua's present sitting is a fine more than his share to relieve the congestion, not alone in the matter of jury trials, but in settlements of cases by agreement between parties. Yesterday, no less than five cases on the short list, scheduled in order for trial, were reported by counsel as being settled by agreement. Now this may not be a record to set in any day's sitting of superior court in this city, but it is extremely doubtful if there has ever been a larger number of cases settled in one day.

The interest the public is taking in the naming of the war heroes of Lowell for the memorial tablets in Trophy hall at the Auditorium is evidenced by the number of corrections that are being reported to Colin MacKerzie. While these names cannot be changed until the error is verified, nevertheless, all suggestions are being cordially welcomed.

PLAYMATES

We played and fought together
When we were kids of ten;
Two birdlings of a feather,
We were true buddies then.
Long since we've changed and shifted
Around the chart,
And slowly we have drifted
And wandered far apart.

We differ in opinions,
Our work is not the same,
In various dominions
We've played a different game;
He doesn't plan in my way,
His thoughts are strange to me,
He walks another highway,
He sails another sea.

Yet, when we get together
In spite of years gone by,
We're still birds of a feather,
This childhood pal and I.
Nor time nor change can smother
The love two men can know,
Who loved and fought each other
So many years ago.

Now I know why everybody is eating ICEBERGS

Busy all morning—not much time for lunch—"starved" at three o'clock—that's when a Chocolate Iceberg is a friend indeed.

Just a generous slice of Hood's old fashioned Ice Cream—coated with specially selected chocolate! It furnishes ample nutrition—and oh, boy! it's great!

Eat one—you'll want another!

Eversharp is a basically correct mechanical pencil. Its construction is simple. There is no complex mechanism to get out of order. Therefore, it works perfectly. Carry two—one filled with the new colored lead.

No other pencil can give you Eversharp service—for Eversharp features can't be copied. The exclusive rifled tip prevents the lead from wobbling. The automatic index tells the length of lead in the barrel. Pull off the cap, and you find an eraser; unscrew the cap, and there is a magazine well filled with leads—an ingenious arrangement.

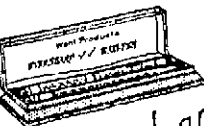

The worthy companion of Eversharp is the all-metal Wahl Pen. It is a great fountain pen improvement. It can neither crack nor break. It will not wear out in a lifetime. And it holds considerably more ink.

Eversharp and Wahl Pen are matched in exquisite designs, and are made in gold and silver. Wahl Pen, $4 to $10; Eversharp, $1 to $10—higher, of course, for solid gold. Buy both, and look for the name on each. See also the Wahl rubber pens. $2.50 up.

the part of physicians and laymen alike. Much light has been thrown on the so-called sources of focal infection. Mysteries which have surrounded goitre, chronic rheumatism and diseases of the stomach and kidneys, have been under strict observation. Intestinal stagnation may cause true infection by micro-organisms penetrating the tissues. However, many cases of chemical poisoning, it is now believed, are due to focal infection, arising in other regions.

Dr. De Courcy of Cincinnati, head of the goitre clinic at Seton hospital, has advanced the statement that goitre is caused by fatigue or excessive exercise. After the treatment of three thousand patients, he is positive that much careful thought must be given the subject of physical exercises in schools and other places, by girls and women.

Eight women develop goitre to every two men. "Excessive athletic and gymnastic work, especially in high schools, when girls are going through the adolescent period, in my opinion is being overdone at present," the doctor says. "Several years ago I advanced the theory that fatigue plays an important part in the production of goitre, and I felt that the growth develops when the normal limit of a patient's endurance is exceeded, whether suddenly or gradually. Women develop goitre more rapidly, because their zone of endurance is more narrow than that of men."

If the growth of goitre in girls and women can be prevented by careful dieting and, as Dr. Courcy says, by avoiding nervous tension and strenuous exercise, one of the greatest dis-

SENIORS READ PAPERS AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Selected papers were read by members of the senior class at the State Normal school yesterday afternoon in the regular lecture period of the school. The students reading papers were the Misses Catherine Ready, Bertha Sandler, Gertrude Martin, Mary Nugent, Blanche Kenney, Alice A. Kelley and Carlina Bartlett. Miss Bartlett's remarks will be read before the New England Teachers' Historical association. The subject, dealt with was "What Training Means from the viewpoint of the Pupil."

Miss Bartlett in her paper took particular care to outline the necessary qualifications of a teacher as a thorough knowledge of the subject being taught, an interesting method of presenting it to her class, the maintenance of discipline by example and encouragement rather than by driving her pupils like the old slave masters, a willingness to serve others rather than herself, and an absence of any unfairness in her judgments on culprits guilty of disorder. Religion also should be kept out of the classroom, as well as any semblance of class or racial prejudice. Misses Ready, Sandler, Martin, Nugent, Kenney and Kelley read papers along the same general lines emphasizing the important points before stated and making it clear that teachers in the grammar schools are more apt to be efficient than those of the high schools, due to the special training in methods of teaching they have received in Normal schools, as well as their realization of the fact that a teacher must hold out an ideal for the children to follow in so far as possible. Attractiveness of dress and person were things to be cultivated. A teacher who is careless about her own appearance sets a poor example to her pupil.

TO VISIT TOMB OF LINCOLN

Lloyd George, Recovered From Slight Cold, Goes to Springfield, Ill.

Declares German Reparations Most Serious Factor in Europe's Disturbances

CHICAGO, Oct. 18 (By the Associated Press).—His chief message to America, written and received from the slight cold and fatigue which kept him idle yesterday, David Lloyd George, war premier of Great Britain, will resume his itinerary today, going to Springfield, Ill., for a visit to the tomb of Abraham Lincoln, and an address there.

After his speech last night to an audience of 10,000 in the International amphitheatre at the stockyards, the British statesman immediately returned to his hotel suite and retired. The all-day rest, which caused an abandonment of the program which had been arranged for him, left apparent but little indication of illness when the little Welshman delivered his address with characteristic force and energy.

Dive Arrested

Three men and two women, charged with creating a disturbance by passing out handbills relating to the freedom of Ireland, were arrested prior to the meeting. The handbills contained questions regarding Ireland which Lloyd George was urged to answer, and at the bottom were printed the names of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic and the United Irish society of Chicago. Many of those seeking to hear the speech knocked the handbills out of the hands of those passing them out, and when the latter refused to move on in compliance with police orders they were arrested.

Reparations Serious Factor

German reparations are the most serious factor in Europe's disturbances and America might aid as peacemaker by participating in an expert inquiry into Germany's ability to pay, as proposed by Charles E. Hughes, secretary of state, Mr. Lloyd George asserted. France's method of seeking to collect by invasion and occupation means "revolution instead of reparations" and is "driving 50,000,000 people into despair," he said.

Europe is a "ragged man standing in front of the plate glass windows of a well stocked store," who cannot buy food and clothes because he cannot pay, he said. The picture of the old world drawn by the little Welshman, he said, America, as the "world's greatest business community," is affected by the European lack of buying power, and that until Europe's prosperity is restored, she cannot enter the world markets as a paying customer.

COAST STARS COME UP

BROOKLYN, Oct. 16.—This year the cream of the Coast league phenoms comes to the Brooklyn club of the National league. Ruben Yarrison, right-handed pitcher, and Johnny Jones, shortstop, have been bought from Portland by the local interests for $50,000. Yarrison, a Connie Mack discard, has been a star on the coast this year. He is an underhand speed merchant of the type of Carl Mays. Jones is a .300 hitter and is counted on to fill the gap in the Brooklyn infield that has existed since Ivan Olson, the veteran, started to go back.

which "is improving rapidly," with German reparations as the chief cause of stagnation and chaos abroad.

"The United States is absolutely impartial," he declared in scolding Secretary Hughes' plan. "She has no interest in reparations. She has certainly no more interest in Germany than anybody else. She is very well disposed toward France and therefore, with a friendly country, absolutely impartial and with a great fund of business knowledge at its disposal, represented in a body of that kind, it seems to me we would find a way to ascertain how much Germany can pay, and once we have done that, then we could march together to compel her to pay."

From Springfield, Mr. Lloyd George will go to St. Louis, thence to Louisville, Ky., where the week-end will be spent.

GLUM HEARERS AT OLD PENNY

The biggest football upset of the early season was the defeat of the supposedly rejuvenated Pennsylvania eleven by Maryland.

This year Penny started out on a new football footing, with a new coach in charge and a new system in vogue. Coach Young, renowned Coach Helmsman and expectations ran high. In Tex Hamer, captain, Penny was said to have one of the finest inspirational leaders in the east.

Maryland was not looked on as a particularly formidable foe. The southern, however, proved to be extremely tough and gave the new Penny regime its first black eye, scoring a 2-0 victory.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND NEVER SUSPECT IT

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent life insurance companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure to mention this paper. Adv.

A BROTHER-TO-BROTHER PASS

DICK THROWS IT—

By N.E.A. Service

— TO JIM

DICK LAWSON

PALE ALTO, Calif., Oct. 14.—The "two-way-Lawson-to-Lawson" forward pass, famous since the brothers played together on the Long Beach High School team, seven years ago, has come to Stanford. And by virtue of that, coast fans are seeing exhibitions of foot-ball tossing rivalled only by "Buck" Muller at University of California.

Dick Lawson, 24, and Jim Lawson, 21, are the boys who work in evidence harness together. They are the pair who shout, "Ready, Jim?" "Shoot 'er, Dick!" "Here she comes!"

Dick, who is a quarterback and halfback, usually is on the sending end. With Jim at left end and Dick dropping back to take the ball from center, the opposing team is usually on the alert for one of Dick's famous over-center passes into Jim's huge hands. When a long pass is wanted, Jim drops back from end to quarterback. Dick calls signals from the end of the line and then speeds down the field. Jim falls back from the rushing defensive ends and tackles, and away soars the oval directly into the hands of the smiling brother.

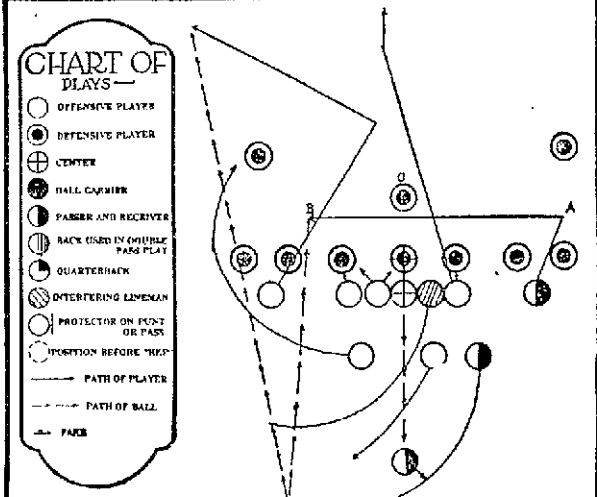

Dick and Jim were powerful factors on the championship Long Beach teams in 1916 and 1917. Time after time their passes decided important games.

Dick, being the older brother, stayed out of school for three years to help Jim. Jim came to college first, but this year both are here. They will play together on the cardinal team this year and next.

Platter Play Is Gray With Age, Yet Much Used by Many Teams

BY ROBERT C. ZUPPE.
Football Coach, University of Illinois.
Author of "Football Technique and Tactics."

The usual thrower makes believe he is about to throw, holding the ball up and back of him somewhat as a waiter holds a platter, and another back, running around to the rear of him, snatches the ball for the purpose of encircling the drawn-in ends and tackling of the defense or actually throwing it to a designated receiver.

ough signal drill was given the squad by Coach Linton in preparation for tomorrow's game with the Boston high school of commerce.

The direction of the run from A to B is determined by the position of defensive back C.

I can well imagine that some of my readers have smiled broadly when they have seen the good old platter play included in this series. Just the same, if it is executed correctly and at the appropriate moment, it might break up many a game. I have seen it work havoc with the best of them.

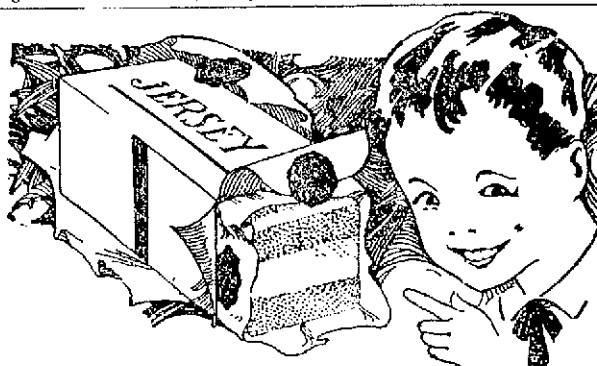

After the fake pass we will consider Play No. 3, a forward pass after a triple pass.

GLoucester, Oct. 18.—The Columbia will probably uphold the glory and traditions of the American fishing fleet in the North Atlantic in the annual race for the international fishermen's trophy.

beginning on Oct. 27 at Halifax, N. S. Under the Henry Ford, unsuccessful challenger of last year, returns from the Banks today, the Columbia will go to Halifax and attempt to wrest the trophy from the present titleholder, the Canadian Blue Nose.

At a meeting last night, the American race committee voted to certify the Columbia as America's official challenger, with the stipulation that if the Ford returned from her fishing trip in time the two would contest an elimination race this week and the winner would become the challenger. As the Ford would require several days to prepare for even an elimination encounter, it is believed that the Columbia's right to meet the Blue Nose will not be contested.

PAPYRUS STAGGERS THE RAILBIRDS IN WORKOUT

NEW YORK, Oct. 18 (By the Associated Press).—Papyrus, the Egyptian Derby winner, staggered the railbirds at Belmont park, early this morning in a dazzling speed trial, the final workout for the international match race with Zev, on Saturday.

The English colt, with Donoghue up, went a mile in 1:58 3-5, and galloped the mile and a furlong in 1:51 2-5. He was never fully extended. The critical observers along the track were unanimous in declaring that it was by far the most impressive trial shown by either of the candidates so far.

The fractional times were: 12 2-5; 24 3-5; 37 4-5; 1:00; 1:12 1-5; 1:25; 1:38 3-5; 1:51 2-5.

Mr. Sullivan, a member of the school board in 1922, comes back this fall in an attempt for another term. He took one of the places now held by J. Eugene Mullin and Dr. Emma V. Slaughter.

welcome it and then directed a statement to the press concerning the sounding of this signal when days are not propitious.

He was interrupted several times by anxious mothers, who wished to know whether school would "keep" this afternoon, but in the end formulated the following:

"I feel that the attention of all persons need children to school should be called to the wording of the rule which governs the sounding of the no-school signal. It reads as follows:

"When the weather is extremely stormy, the superintendent of schools or persons designated by him may suspend the day or evening schools for one session."

It is to be noted that the rule specifically states that the signal may be sounded only when weather is "extremely stormy," he continued. "This does not mean that a session will be dispensed with whenever it is stormy."

"When we take out of the school time of every year holidays, visiting days and convention days, it does not require many stormy signal days to relate the actual school time to a bare 35 weeks of five days each."

"The superintendent of schools, without pretending for a moment to be a good judge of weather probabilities, consults a number of persons when he is in doubt about the weather and having made what he thinks at the time is the best decision, has no further interest in what the weather may do."

"The no-school signal is sounded for omission of forenoon sessions at 7:15 A. M., for afternoon sessions at 12:45 P. M., and for evening school sessions at 8:05 P. M."

"There are persons who persistently call the superintendent by telephone as early as 5:30 o'clock in the morning, at 10 o'clock, noon, and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon to get advance information concerning decisions which are not to be made until at least an hour later in each instance. Complaints also come from the department officials that various officers in the city are annoyed by inquiries concerning school sessions whenever the weather is doubtful."

"In the main the superintendent believes children should go to school in any weather that is not so severe to cause them to shiver themselves from affairs of their own pleasure; and at the same time he wishes to call attention to the fact that parents may still use their own judgment in the matter of sending children to school on stormy days whether or not the no-school signal is sounded."

Superintendent Melloy did not intimate that the school department contemplates any reduction in the number of instances in which the signal has sounded in the past nor did he say that a stricter interpretation of the rule would be made in the future, but he called attention to the rule, with the hope that much advance telephone annoyance may be avoided.

TRIAL OF W. J. CORCORAN

Asst. Dist. Atty. Hill Opens

Argument for State in

Blackmail Case

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—The opening argument for the state was made today by Asst. Dist. Atty. Arthur D. Hill, in the trial of William J. Corcoran, former district attorney of Middlesex county and seven others on indictments for larceny and conspiracy in connection with alleged blackmail schemes.

He said that the state would show that Mrs. Theresa Duggan, one of the defendants, and Peggy Bundy, who was indicted with the others but has not been arrested, "were the women used by the defendants in carrying out their purposes."

"We shall show," he continued, "that these defendants under the guidance of William J. Corcoran and Harry B. Levenson had a general conspiracy to extort money by threatening to accuse of crimes—in other words blackmail—from wealthy men by getting them into compromising positions with women."

Mr. Hill charged that the defendants had extorted money by those means from James L. Donovan and from a man named Curtis, whose first name was not known to the authorities, and had tried unsuccessfully to extort money from Max Korn and Kenneth Merrill.

The announcement was made yesterday that Mrs. Theresa Duggan, one of the defendants, who was expected to be a star witness for the commonwealth, should not take the stand against her co-defendants.

DOGS JOIN IN CHORUS WHEN BOY SINGS

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The musical traits of 55 dogs Joseph Oller keeps in his East Side tenement may result in the master being jailed.

Mrs. B. Kaubert, a neighbor, today called on Judge Day, asserting that her hard-earned money, used for training the voice of her eight-year-old son, was going for nothing.

"Every time the boy begins to sing, the dogs join in the chorus," lamented the mother.

Another woman complained that the canine chorus was ruining the piano technique of her young daughter.

The court ruled that Oller must by tomorrow get rid of 44 of the dogs or go to jail for disorderly conduct.

An application for a permit in the sum of $35,000 was made by the Lowell Gas Light Co. for the erection of a bulk storage tank in School street, to be 102 feet long and 55 feet in depth and embracing an ell, 35 by 35 feet. The Lowell Construction Co. also has this contract.

The Old Lowell National bank has taken out a permit for alterations to its building to cost $50,000.

Director Franzen was absent; so the magnate saw the assistant director, M. Novéjans, whom he told in emphatic terms that he could not deliver the 20 per cent output of the Ruhr coal mines for the reparation account, as had been hoped by the French and Belgians unless the Reich guaranteed reimbursement. A two-hour argument failed to move Herr Stinnes from his position and he left without reaching an agreement with the French official.

DENOUNCES DANGEROUS ACTIONS OF MOTORISTS

Supt. Thomas J. Sayers of the Lowell division of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. today vigorously denounced the habit of motorists in cutting in front of trolley cars and also the dangerous practice of rushing around cars when stopped for the purpose of taking on or letting off passengers. Passing around stopped cars on the wrong side was particularly condemned as foully by the superintendent.

It was prompted to speak of these traffic violations as result of two somewhat minor accidents which occurred last night, although in each instance serious consequences narrowly were averted.

Ex-U. S. Diplomat At Stokes Trial

Continued

O'Brien, reporter and representative of the de facto government of San Domingo, declared he had come into contact with the ex-U. S. diplomat, who identified Mrs. Stokes to his own satisfaction. When he saw her, he said, he was sure she was the woman he had seen in 1915 at St. Paul.

On cross-examination by Mr. Entenmeyer, he said he was not sure it was Oct. 1 when he had visited the court, it was the opening day of the trial, he added.

Mr. Knickerbocker placed the number of times he had seen Mrs. Stokes in the Wallace trial at two.

"I wouldn't say more than two times," he went on, "although it may have been five or six times. I saw her once coming up the stairs. I noticed her when she stumbled."

On another occasion, the witness said he was in Wallace's living room, waiting for Dr. Entenmeyer, who shared the apartment with the traction man, when Mrs. Stokes entered the hall, passed through and entered another room in the flat.

Mr. Entenmeyer asked if he had ever seen Wallace in the flat at the same time Mrs. Stokes was present.

"No," he answered. "The only time I saw him was when he came to see me."

FORD BETTER AS A CITIZEN

Edison Says Auto Man Worth

More to Nation as Citizen

Than President

Declares White House Would

"Spoil a Good Man"

Sees Work Day of 4 Hours

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (By the Associated Press).—Thomas A. Edison, electrical wizard, in an interview granted newspaper men spoke yesterday of the presidential possibilities of his friend, Henry Ford, and declared that it would "spoil a good man" if the nation sent him to the White House.

Mr. Edison expressed the opinion that the automobile manufacturer was more valuable to the nation as a private citizen and then turned to the prediction made recently by Charles P. Steinmetz, inventor, connected with the General Electric Co., that electricity eventually could reduce the working day to four hours, with this opinion Mr. Edison agreed.

Mr. Edison, however, was not sure that the four-hour day would be a good thing for the nation. He expressed fear that too large a leisure class would be created and that this would have a bad effect, particularly on the young.

Commenting on the unpopularity of new ideas, Mr. Edison declared that it took from seven to 10 years for the initial demonstration of a beneficial device to its ultimate acceptance.

"I made the first dozen typewriters," he said, laughing, "and it took me seven years to convince the public they were worth it, and then another three years to sell them."

Within a very few years, he said, coal could be transformed into electrical energy at the mines and distributed throughout the country in high power transmission lines, doing more quickly and efficiently the work now performed by the fuel after long haulage and many handlings. Transportation costs and the various other charges now connected with getting fuel energy to the consumer would thus be obviated, he said.

"Why, I have been advocating this for 40 years," he said.

He added that he recently had discussed the problem with a group of Nova Scotia power men. He declared that Mr. Hoover's proposed super-power system was feasible. He added that "whatever Hoover says is all right," and characterized him as a level-headed man.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 9

And sure enough, just as Jack reached the great castle kitchen, Pip jumped out from behind a stove and greeted his master. "Well, where did you come from?" said Jack. "Oh, he's been here ever since you have," replied Jingo. "The night watchman let him in because he's a good watch dog."

During all this commotion the castle cook was in the kitchen pantry. The noise attracted him and he suddenly appeared in the pantry doorway. Then he let out a loud roar and went tearing across the kitchen floor and disappeared out of a doorway that led to a great courtyard.

"Well, what's the matter with him?" laughed Jack. "Oh, he's not used to seeing Clatter Legs, the armored knight, walking around. It must have scared him." Jack then ran to the window and saw the cook hiding behind a large bush at the rear of the castle. (Continued.)

MISTER DOUGHER SHOOK HIS LIMP STRAW HAT HEARTILY

"Why, you've lost your gun, Mister Scare Crow," cried Nick, as he was taking a walk with Nancy and Mister Scare Crow through the corn-field. "Oh, no, I haven't," replied Mister Scare Crow, his wide straw mouth curved in a merry smile. "I didn't exactly lose it, I threw it away." And he chuckled so that he shook all over. It was the end of the season and Mister Scare Crow was getting quite old. "And your tin pan hat is gone, too," said Nancy, suddenly noticing that the gentleman of the corn-field was bare-headed. "Tee, hee, hee," chuckled Mister Scare Crow again. "I didn't lose that either. I threw it away, too!" "Indeed!" declared Mister Scare Crow. "You're getting quite frivolous in your old age, Cousin Scare Crow. It isn't everybody who can afford such extravagance." "Extravagance nothing!" declared Mister Scare Crow suddenly growing sober. "One is never extravagant when helping out a friend. And if Farmer Brown can't trust me with a real gun and real bullets, one has to do the best he can." "Whatever on earth are you talking about?" demanded Mister Scare Crow. "Please explain yourself." "That's what you should have said in the first place," remarked Mister Scare Crow amiably. "Without jumping at conclusions, I'll tell you all about it. Do you know, Don, the big dog?" "Yes," cried the twins. "Oh, yes, yes, indeed," echoed Mister Scare Crow.

The Lowell Masonic choir has been specially honored in being asked to provide all the music for the service to be held in Tremont Temple, Boston, next Sunday afternoon, as a part of the observance of the 75th anniversary of the Moby commandery. Albert Edmund Brown, director, will take 50 men to Boston and has prepared a musical program of four numbers, to include "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," "Rock of Ages," "The Lord is My Shepherd," and "The Lord is My Shepherd." The choir will be the organist.

The service will be wholly religious in type and will be the opening service of the anniversary observance which is expected to stretch over a four-day period. The service is to be presided over by one of the most able and brilliant divines in the Protestant church, Rev. McIlwain Leitcher of Newton, formerly of Cleveland.

LONG DROUTH CAUSES ALARM
Thousands Throughout State Forced to Drink Water From Unprotected Ponds

Situation in Worcester County Due to Drouth, Said to Be Worst in Decade

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—Thousands of persons throughout Massachusetts are faced with the necessity of drinking water from unprotected ponds and streams in consequence of the long continued drouth, said to be the worst in a decade. The towns and cities of Newton, Woburn, Ipswich and Athol have already been forced to augment their water supply with water from outside sources, according to the state department of health.

A serious situation has developed in Worcester county and the city of Worcester in reported today to have only 20 days supply of water on hand. Other municipalities expected to apply within a few days for permission to take water from lakes or ponds are Millbury, Leicester, Pittsfield, Salem and Cambridge.

Towns within Metropolitan district are authorized to draw from the Metropolitan system. The city of Newton has been using water from the Metropolitan system for two months. It is feared, however, that if continued drouth should be made, the huge reservoir at Clinton will become depleted.

Worcester's 45 days supply would be insufficient to last until pipe lines could be laid to connect the city with the Metropolitan system, it is believed. Authorities have already indicated that the city following a vote by the city council will seek to obtain water from the Boston system.

DOMESTIC QUARREL LED TO OTHER THINGS
Arriving at a tenement at 130 Merrimack street early last evening for the supposed purpose of quelling a domestic quarrel, Officer John J. Farley was confronted with an extensive array of articles used in coloring, splitting and bottling grain alcohol. The disturbance having been quieted, Officer Farley notified Sgt. Winn and Officers Conney and Moore of the liquor squad, of his find. Securing a search warrant, the above officers, together with Officers Owen Conway and Thomas Murphy, gave the premises the "double O" and found two gallons of partially colored alcohol, 22 pint bottles of the finished goods, four and one-half gallons of grain alcohol, coloring ingredients, testers, fuels and other materials.

As a result of the search, Leo Tiche, who was in the tenement at the time of the raid, was arraigned in district court this morning on a charge of illegal keeping. He was continued in 536 until Oct. 22.

PEOPLE OF TURNERS' FALLS ARE HONEST
TURNERS' FALLS, Oct. 18.—The people of Turners' Falls are honest. That fact was proved yesterday afternoon when a jewelry salesman's sample case full of valuables, stood un molested on a curb in front of the Skinner & Flagg Jewelry Store from mid-afternoon until after dark. The salesman had visited several local stores and set one of his cases on the curb while he stepped into the Skinner & Flagg store. Summoned quickly to catch a trolley car he forgot the case on the curb. When Mr. Flagg closed his store last night at 6.30 he noticed the case and put it in a safe place. The salesman later inquired about it and was much relieved to learn that his property had not fallen into dishonest hands.

New Jersey Authorities Preparing Requisition Papers to Remove Prisoners
Held on Charge of Murder in Connection With Death of Emma Dickson

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—New Jersey authorities were preparing requisition papers today for the removal to that state of Ernesto Faccenda, held here on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Emma Dickson, Millville, N. J., high school girl, nearly a month ago. Relatives of the prisoner declare they would fight his extradition, asserting that his reported statement that he had witnessed the killing of the girl was the result of a distorted imagination. Faccenda denied that he had made such a statement and declared that he knew absolutely nothing of the case.

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM CROWDED ON OCCASION OF AN UNUSUAL PARISH REUNION

Young and Old of St. Patrick's Parish Share the Pleasures of an Evening Filled With Sociability and Entertainment—Largest Church or Parish Reunion Ever Held in This City

Genuine renewals of acquaintanceships, capital entertainment and dancing, and a general and pleasing re-creation of old-time spirit and sociability, characterized the reunion in the Memorial Auditorium last night of Lowell's oldest and steadily progressing Catholic parish, St. Patrick's of the Ave. Young and old, to the number of almost 4000, occupying every available seat in the huge amphitheatre, were there last night to participate in the joviality accompanying the occasion, and to show by their presence, an organized support of parish activities and endeavors under the direction of the energetic pastor, Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., and his able assistants.

It is not exaggerating to state that last night's affair was the largest parish reunion ever held in this city. It was incidentally the first big function undertaken by the parish since the appointment to the pastorate as a community singing leader and carried the audience along with her in the various numbers, including "Old Black Joe," "My Genevieve," "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," "Swinging Down the Lane," and "Yes, We Have No Bananas." The gathering arose and sang "The Star Spangled Banner" spiritedly.

At the conclusion of the concert numbers, general dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening. It is difficult to decide which delegation had the better time—the old or the young—for two halls, the main Auditorium and Liberty hall, were utilized for indulgence in the light fantastic. The old-timers held sway in Liberty hall where waltzes, Virginia reels, and other dances were had, while the young people engaged in waltzes and fox trots in the main hall.

Those responsible for the success of the affair were the following: Floor director, Edward E. Saunders; assistant floor director, Daniel E. Martin; chief aid, William A. Walsh; aids, W. C. Brady, E. J. Buchanan, E. McEnamoney, P. L. Saunders, E. J. O'Donnell, E. J. Rogers, J. J. Hanlon, W. P. Barrett, H. L. Watson, J. F. Adams, J. P. Savage, J. W. McGuinness, E. A. Fitzgerald, P. A. Johnstone, J. J. Sullivan, A. A. Gannon, J. P. Nollan, J. F. Golden, J. P. Saunders, J. D. Lannan, P. J. Kelley, C. L. Marren, E. P. Donohue, J. T. O'Connor.

Reception committee: John J. Sullivan, chairman; Joseph J. Higgins, John J. Flannery, J. J. Leary, Charles Leary, H. O'Sullivan, James O'Sullivan, James Hession, Timothy O'Brien, Henry Doran, Jas. Morris, John Zwickert, John Leary, William H. Sullivan, Charles McCarthy, James O'Sullivan, J. Timothy O'Sullivan, Dennis J. Crowley, Frederick P. Kelly, Geo. Kearns, Dr. John J. Walsh, Patrick J. Keane, Michael Adams, William Paul McCarthy, Daniel McCarthy, Joseph E. Shanley, William J. Hendley, Dr. P. J. Farley, Edward J. Boyle, William J. Donohue, John J. Mulvaney, John Corcoran, James E. Donohue, James J. Bruhn, John J. O'Sullivan, James J. O'Sullivan, Thomas J. O'Sullivan, John Curran, Harry Keyes, Michael Delaney, Mortimer Delaney, John M. Moran, Charles E. Walsh, Arthur Keyes, Arthur McCarthy, Frank McCarthy, Michael J. Kelley, John J. Conlon, Hon. John J. Donohue, John J. Murphy, Maurice O'Connor, Joseph O'Sullivan, Dr. Timothy J. Heelan, Thomas J. O'Sullivan, John J. O'Sullivan, Thomas Wallace, Owen Healey, Humphrey Coffey, Michael Johnson, John Dalton, Dr. James E. Sullivan, Dr. John H. Donohue, George Murray.

Worthy of special mention is the fact that everything connected with the reunion, including admission, dancing and refreshments, was gratis. "It is just a genial gathering where everybody has come to have a good time," said the pastor, and money consideration was forgotten. Dr. McGarry opened the festivities with an address of welcome, rendered in his own inimitable manner, telling of his warm feelings for the parishioners and of his hopes and aspirations for a greater St. Patrick's.

The musical program began with a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Delmore, who were faced to respond to an encore. They were followed by Miss Nellie Lynch, in a selected solo number, accompanied on the piano by Miss Loretta Hannan. The musical direction of Miss Loretta Hannan was next on the program and proved a pleasing feature. Those participating in the quartet, old-fashioned steps were: Madeline Bolger, John Gray, Mary Goulding, Bernard Mullen, William J. O'Sullivan, Marjorie Doherty, John Doherty, Thomas J. O'Sullivan, Mollie Bolger, Norbert Parent, Elizabeth Mullen and Daniel Sullivan.

James O'Garra, with bagpipes, and Patrick Calahan, with violin, rendered several "jig" selections. Mr. O'Garra dancing to the strains of the violin. His interpretations were difficult, but he executed them with perfect rhythm.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Joseph W. Green, with Francis Ready at the piano, the entire audience joined in the singing of old familiar tunes, from the "Sweet Adeline" of yesterday, to the modern "Yes, We Have No Bananas." Mrs. Green showed exceptional ability.

Arrangements were completed last evening for the annual installation of officers of Bishop Delany Assembly, Fourth Degree, K. of C. tonight. A banquet and speeches will follow the installation ceremonies.

Fred E. Davine of Gardner, an ex-prisoner in the United States army, enlisted as a second-class seaman at the local recruiting station today. He was sent to Newport, R. I. for training.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Northing and daughter, Virginia, Ellmore, and Mr. L. J. T. Allen, formerly a well-known Lowell resident, is in town for a fortnight renewing old acquaintances. She is now located at Pearl River, N. Y.
